TO ANY OLD MEMBERS OF THE ARTISTS' RIFLES

Ex-members of the famous Artists Rifles, 28th Battalion, London Regiment, who may be in British Columbia, are desired to let their presence be known. When the soldiers begin to settle down after the present war, the ex-members of the Artists here would like to be able to give a welcome to any members of their old corps arriving in British Columbia.

There must be some old members of the Artists living in B. C., and by getting in touch, they may make themselves of service to their Regimental Association.

The Artists have at present two battalions at the front, where they have done good service. It is composed chiefly of young students of professions and its ex-members are scattered all over the globe. After the war, it is expected that a great many of its present members will be coming to the newer countries. Every person knows the appreciation of a friendly hand on arriving in a strange country, and in offering this, the Artists are carrying out one of the objects of their association.

Will ex-members kindly communicate with Honorary Secretary 17 Craven Street, London, W. C., or Mr. R. Barker, box 127, Daily News office, Prince Rupert, B. C.
