SPEEDING UP PRODUCTION—PLOUGHING AT NIGHT WITH TRACTOR.—This picture vividly shows how Britain is speeding up production. It was taken near Wendover on a farm whose owner discovered that he could keep his tractor ploughs going by night as well as by day. In clear moonlight no artificial light was needed. On dark nights, two lights were used.

THE MAN WHO ACTS WITHOUT THINKING

The German newspapers are advertising that all men over military age, but liable still for national service, between the ages of 47 and 60 must register themselves forthwith. The official articles declare that there is now no time to be lost because "the war must be finished as rapidly as possible," and the public are urged to smooth the task of the authorities.

In addition to this the Cologne Gazette under the heading, "The man who acts without thinking," shows "how Englishmen today judge their Lloyd George" and comments as follows:

"There can now be few people in Europe who are not clear about the fact that the greatest obstacle to peace for the exhausted world consists in the person of the leading English statesman, Lloyd George. The peoples, which yearn for peace, would probably have had peace long ago, if the uneasy Welshman had not stimulated passion ever afresh by the excess of his self deception, by his great temperament and by his remaining influence. This miniature edition of a democratic Napoleon maintains himself by the new methods which he has applied to the government of England, by the press dictatorship under Lord Northcliffe and by the paralysis of parliament, through a cabinet of politically impotent experts, who are devoted to him.

"The fact, however, that the recognition of the extent to which this man growing into a disaster for Europe is increasing more and more, not only among England's friends and allies, but also among his own fellow countrymen, is a remarkable sign of the times and one which we should keep in view. For until Lloyd George is either set aside or made harmless as a minister, no real disposition for peace will arise in England."

Comment of this nature from the Cologne Gazette regarding Premier Lloyd George may be regarded as a compliment.

2,000,000 Belgians Depend on us for Bread!

Since shortly after the German invasion, the Belgians have depended for food entirely on the "Commission for Relief in Belgium". Their own store of food, even if not destroyed or pillaged, would last only three weeks—they have had no chance to raise more—and the ruthless Germans refuse to supply them!

Backed by the

so generously contributed in the British Empire and the United States, the neutral Belgian Relief Commission has imported enough wheat, flour and other foods to feed the whole nation so far. The great majority of the 7,000,000 Belgians left in the country have been able to pay for their daily allowance of bread—but a steadily growing number have no money left.

Unless we are willing to let these hundreds of thousands of women, children and old men starve, they must be fed at the expense of the Belgian Relief Fund. To make this possible someone must contribute nearly $3,000,000 a month—every month—all this winter!

No people under the Allied Flag are as well able to contribute generously as we Canadians! No cause has ever been more deserving of help! In the name of Justice and Humanity—for the sake of our own self-respect—let us give all we can to help our martyred Allies!

In the Highest Degree Profitable

Some men figure that as the mercury climbs up sales will fall down. And figuring that way, fate is kind and does not disappoint them.

So there has grown up a commercial superstition that Summer is a dull season.

No greater fallacy has ever gone so long unchallenged.

Summer is a dull season for many lines—but there is no fundamental reason why it should be.

For instance, take a typical case—that of the Canadian wallpaper manufacturers.

They wished to secure their placing orders from the retailers before the early Fall—when American lines are offered. Through education by Advertising, they advanced the season to start the middle of June, instead of the end of August, and they now beat their foreign competitors to the market by nearly three months.

Perhaps you face a selling problem that education by Advertising will solve. Perhaps your Summer business needs the tonic of Summer Advertising.

As the mercury climbs up to its highest degree, increase, rather than slacken, your Advertising and selling efforts. You will find it profitable—in the highest degree.

Advice regarding your advertising problems is available through any recognized Canadian advertising agency, or the Secretary of the Canadian Press Association, Room 503 Lumsden Building, Toronto. Enquiry involves no obligation on your part—so write, if interested.
