

FELT LIKE A NEW PERSON

After Taking Only One Box Of "Fruit-a-lives"

EAST SHIP HARBOR, N. S.
 "It is with great pleasure that I write to tell you of the wonderful benefits I have received from taking "Fruit-a-lives". For years, I was a dreadful sufferer from Constipation and Headaches, and I was miserable in every way. Nothing in the way of medicines seemed to help me. Then I finally tried "Fruit-a-lives" and the effect was splendid. After taking one box, I feel like a new person, to have relief from those sickening Headaches".

THE RUSSION PRESS AND SEPARATE PEACE

The Russian press considers the semi-official German and Austro-Hungarian notes concerning the possibility of bringing the war aims of the Central Powers into consonance with those of Russia as a "base, treacherous and hypocritical manoeuvre." The Reich, in reiterating that the Russian Provisional Government is pursuing no aims of conquest, declares it is fully and entirely in agreement with the views expressed by the representatives of the other Entente Powers.

"The enemy precipitately denounces a desire for a separate peace in these notes, scarcely more clever than the proclamations thrown into the Russian trenches inviting the peasants to return to their villages and snare the estates of the landowners," says the paper. "These notes will have no better success than the proclamations in the naive attempt to embroil Russia with her Allies."

Emphasizing the "monstrous sophism" of the Austrian declaration that the aim of the Dual Monarchy is to give the peoples the right to regulate their own destinies—the war aim announced by the Russian Provisional Government—The Reich continues:

Transparent Tricks.
 "Our enemies are trying to avoid any concrete indication of their aims, just as they abstained from replying to the definite appeal by President Wilson."

"The Russian people know why they are continuing the mortal struggle. They respect the obligations arising from their alliances and will not give up their rights."

The Petrograd papers severely criticize a speech made by one of the returned Socialist exiles, Lenine, in which he advised the Provisional Government to solicit peace with Germany. The Russkoye Volia says that there is no difference between Lenine and Sturmer, both of whom sought to impose on Russia a shameful and disadvantageous peace.

The Novoye Vremya says that the Russian people never understand the psychology of Lenine and his friends, "which is that of Wilhelm and Hindenburg."

The date of the first publication of this notice is February 21st, 1917.

GEORGE MCRAE, Applicant.

2,000,000 Belgians Depend on us for Bread!

Since shortly after the German invasion, the Belgians have depended for food entirely on the "Commission for Relief in Belgium". Their own store of food, even if not destroyed or pillaged, would last only three weeks—they have had no chance to raise more—and the ruthless Germans refuse to supply them!

Backed by the

so generously contributed in the British Empire and the United States, the neutral Belgian Relief Commission has imported enough wheat, flour and other foods to feed the whole nation so far. The great majority of the 7,000,000 Belgians left in the country have been able to pay for their daily allowance of bread—but a steadily growing number have no money left.

Unless we are willing to let these hundreds of thousands of women, children and old men starve, they must be fed at the expense of the Belgian Relief Fund. To make this possible someone must contribute nearly $3,000,000 a month—every month—all this winter!

No people under the Allied Flags are so well able to contribute generously as we Canadians! No cause has ever been more deserving of help! In the name of Justice and Humanity—for the sake of our own self-respect—let us give all we can to help our martyred Allies!

If your child is breathless, Mather's Syrup of Tar and Cod Liver Oil not only promptly cures the cough and clears the passageway, but also builds up the system.

Making a Flat World Round

When Columbus set out to reach India by sailing westward, he met with opposition and ridicule. He believed the earth to be round.

Wise men held that it was flat—that Columbus was mad—and that he'd fall off somewhere if he departed from established beliefs.

But Columbus' belief found him a continent and made him blessed of memory.

The Business World is flat to some men

Their profit-bearing shores of Opportunity stretch only so far as their grandfathers trod. Custom, superstition and apathy have set them confines which they may not pass.

For instance, they believe the business year is a flat one—not an all-year round of trade, with East joining West, with Spring merging into Autumn—but just two distinct seasons, with sawed-off edges gaping into space.

They confine their activities to a Spring trade and to a Fall trade. To them there is no intervening continent with stores of waiting wealth. Their world is flat. They have not explored the mid-year months of Summer trade. June, July and August are never-never land.

Surely this conception of Summer as a "dull" season is as fallacious as the delusion that the earth was flat. People have just as much money in the hot weather and spend quite as freely as in Spring and Fall. Granted that they are not buying skates and snow shovels in August, yet they are buying staple articles. Furthermore, they have an eye on luxuries and comforts they are counting upon purchasing in the Fall.

The modern Columbus has discovered this Summer trade—this golden West lying between the known continents of old beliefs. Departing from established habit, many have made their energies and their Advertising an all-year-round proposition.

Keeping up Advertising during the Summer months not only links your Spring and Fall, but produces rich harvests from the Summer months themselves.

Advice regarding your advertising problem is available through any recognized Canadian advertising agency, or the Secretary of the Canadian Press Association, Room 505 Lumsden Building, Toronto. Enquiry involves no obligation on your part—so write, if interested.
