Are The Four Fruits Used in Making "Fruit-a-lives"

"FRUIT-A-LIVES" is the only medicine in the world that is made from the juices of fresh ripe fruits. Thus, it is manifestly unfair to say, "I won't take Fruit-a-lives because I have tried other remedies and they did me no good". On the other hand, the fact that "Fruit-a-lives" is entirely different from any other preparation in the world, is just why you should give it a fair trial, in any trouble of the Stomach, Liver, Bowels, Kidneys or Skin. "Fruit-a-lives" is composed of the active principle of fruit and the greatest nerve tonic ever discovered. 50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c. THE WAR CONFERENCE OF THE EMPIRE

One of the most important epochs in the constitutional history of the British Empire is marked by Christmas Day, 1916, for the reason that on this date the Imperial Government for the first time called India and the dominions into its councils, not purely in an advisory, but in an executive capacity.

The Colonial Secretary's telegram was less an invitation than an urgent summons to the Prime Ministers of the dominions to attend "a special war conference of the Empire." They are to attend a series of special and continuous meetings of the War Cabinet in order to consider, (1) urgent questions affecting the prosecution of the war; (2) the possible conditions on which, in agreement with our allies, we could assent to its termination, and (3) the problems which will then immediately arise.

In the War Cabinet.

For the purpose of these meetings the dominion Prime Ministers and the Secretary of State for India will be included in the War Cabinet. In other words, they will be members of the supreme executive of the British Empire, the decisions of which will determine the policy to be pursued in waging war, in negotiating peace, and in dealing with various urgent problems which will arise immediately on the cessation of hostilities.

There have been five previous conferences between the self-governing states and the mother country, during the past thirty years, and two subsidiary conferences, one of which was held in Ottawa. The main interest of these proceedings has centred round three questions, none of which has yet received a satisfactory answer. The first of these questions is Imperial defence, the second, Imperial reciprocity, the third, Imperial consolidation—closer union in a political sense, whether by means of co-operation, of definite alliance, or of federation.

Extended Activity.

The terms of the invitation to this conference make it clear that it will concern itself with the conduct of the war, terms of peace and subsequent problems, but in many quarters it seems to be taken for granted that it will extend its activities into other regions; that it will consider Imperial consolidation; a permanent scheme of Imperial defence; that it will inaugurate a league of nations to enforce peace and justice throughout the world; that it will accept Imperial reciprocity; that it will propound a scheme for the development of Imperial resources, and take control of all minerals, metals, wool and other raw products of the Empire, and that it will deal with the various Imperial and dominion debts and work out a plan for liquidating the cost of the war. These subjects have been mentioned within the past few weeks as coming within the purview of the first Imperial conference which it is intended to clothe with executive powers.

Empire Responsibility.
For thirty months the Imperial Government which exists by the suffrages of the United Kingdom electors alone, conducted the war, controlled British policy upon its own responsibility. It abstained from calling the dominions to its councils although it had not only the opportunity but the obligation to do so. This omission has at last been remedied. During the remainder of the war the policy of the Imperial Government will be one for which the whole Empire and not merely the United Kingdom, is responsible.

Having once taken part through their representatives in the executive councils of the Empire, the dominions are not likely ever again to return to their former blindfold state. They are now summoned to share in the direction of the war, in determining the conditions of peace, and in preparing for the settlement when hostilities cease. The functions of the war conference of the Empire are designated and circumscribed by its name. It will not be so precipitate as to usurp those of the peace conference of the Empire, which must inevitably follow in due season.—From "The Round Table."

THE DOMINION

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE,

OTTAWA

HONOURABLE MARTIN BURRELL, Minister.

How to go about it

BUY eggs for hatching or day-old chicks; borrow or buy a broody hen or an artificial brooder. A slatted packing-box will house the hen and chicks. Feed the chicks bread crumbs soaked in milk, and squeezed dry. Feed five times a day, alternating with prepared chick feed, only as much as they will eat up clean. Remember that a hungry chick is a healthy chick.

CAUTION: Chicks must not be fed until at least 48 hours old, and then only sparingly.

If you can, start now with eggs or chicks; if not, arrange at once with the local poultry association for pullets in the fall.
