

APPLES, ORANGES, FIGS AND PRUNES

Are The Four Fruits Used in Making "Fruit-a-tives"

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" is the only medicine in the world that is made from the juices of fresh ripe fruits. Thus, it is manifestly unfair to say, "I won't take Fruit-a-tives because I have tried other remedies and they did me no good". On the other hand, the fact that "Fruit-a-tives" is entirely different from any other preparation in the world, is just why you should give it a fair trial, in any trouble of the Stomach, Liver, Bowels, Kidneys or Skin. "Fruit-a-tives" is composed of the active principle of fruit and the greatest nerve tonic ever discovered. 50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c. At all dealers or sent postpaid by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

HOW UNCLE SAM'S DAUGHTER IS SHOWING THE FLAG

The latest summer hat in the United States is of white Milan straw with red and white gros-grain ribbon strips running round the crown, while the blue is put before the world very ostentatiously with forty-eight embroidered stars directly in front. It is also suggested that ladies throughout the United States show their patriotism by displaying the "colors" on their gloves, stockings, hats, etc. The gloves are of white kid with the stars and bars embroidered on the backs. The stockings are of white silk, with the flags embroidered in silk.

POLICE WERE REAL MASTERS IN RUSSIA

Petrograd, May 8.—It has been said that Russia was ruled, not by the Czar, but by the police and the Orthodox Church. There is a good deal of truth in that, but possibly there would be more if the church were left out of the count. The police were the real masters of that patient, suffering nation of 170,000,000 souls, and they ruled it with a hard hand. Only one thing could have put an end to its malevolent power, and that one thing has now come to pass. The sum total extorted annually by this body from the Russian people in bribes and blackmail must have amounted to many millions of dollars. In the extinct Russia nothing could be done without greasing the palm of the police, and with that lubrication it was possible to do anything.

The police held out to the last, fighting desperately with machine guns from their strongholds on the tops of public buildings. The police were loyal to the old regime because they were the old regime. None had so much to hope from the obsolete order, none so much to fear from its overthrow. Most of them were only too well aware that the dawn of a new era would mean for them if not long terms of well-merited imprisonment, at any rate the loss of their livelihood. It was no abstract loyalty to the throne which steeled their resistance, but the thought of their own morrow. Other classes of officials, though lazy, incompetent, and corrupt, might hope to be left in their posts, but there could be no chance for a new Russia till the old police system had been cleared out, lock, stock and barrel.

It must not be supposed that the secret service maintained in Russia by public money were at any time united and co-ordinated under a single control. Not only had nearly every member of the cabinet a private system of espionage at his service, but in some departments subordinate officials had their own chiefs watched by similar means. It was a case of sap and counter-sap down to the very depths. To combat the subterranean attack of treachery, the patriotic elements in the administration were themselves compelled to go underground, and espionage and provocation were met by counter-espionage and counter-provocation.
