After Taking Only One Box Of "Fruit-a-tives"

EARLY SHIP HARBOUR, N. S.
"It is with great pleasure that I write to tell you of the wonderful benefits I have received from taking 'Fruit-a-tives'. For years, I was a dreadful sufferer from Constipation and Headaches, and I was miserable in every way. Nothing in the way of medicines seemed to help me. Then I finally tried 'Fruit-a-tives' and the effect was splendid. After taking one box, I feel like a new person, to have relief from those sickening Headaches".

THE REAL MEN AT THE FRONT

One of the finest letters from the front, descriptive of the real quality of the manhood of the Allies fighting there, appears in the current number of "Good Housekeeping." The description is so fine, and expresses so well the spirit of the boys, that on its face, even without the signature, the writer's character is stamped. As a literary man, Coningsby Dawson is well known. He says: "War's a grim game—not at all what one's civilian mind imagined; it's far more horrible and far less exciting. The horrors which the civilian mind dreams most are mutilation and death. Our here we rarely think about them; the thing which wears on one most and calls out his gravest courage is the endless sequence of physical discomfort. Not to be able to wash, not to be able to sleep, to have to be wet and cold for long periods at a stretch, to find mud on your person, in your food, to have to stand in mud, see mud, sleep in mud, and to continue to smile—that's what tests courage.

Our chaps are splendid. They're not the harebrained idiots that war correspondents depict from day to day. They're perfectly sane people who know to a fraction what they're up against, but who carry on with a grim good nature and a determination to win with a smile. I never before appreciated as I do today the latent capacity for big-hearted endurance that is in the heart of every man. Here are apparently quite ordinary chaps—chaps who washed, liked theatres, loved kiddies and sweethearts, had a zest for life—they're bankrupt of all pleasures except the supreme pleasure of knowing that they're doing the ordinary and finest thing of which they are capable. There are millions to whom the mere consciousness of doing their duty has brought an heretofore unexperienced peace of mind. For myself, I was never happier than I am at present; there's a novel zip added to life by the daily rush and the knowledge that at last you're doing something into which no trace of selfishness enters. One can die only once; the chief concern that matters is how and not when you die. I don't pity the weary men who have attained eternal leisure in the corruption of our shell-furrowed battles; they "went west" in their supreme moment. The men I pity are those who could not hear the call of duty, and whose consciences will grow more flabby every day. With the brutal roar of the first Prussian gun the cry came to the civilized world, "Follow thou me," just as truly as it did in Palestine. Men went to their Calvary singing "Tipperary"—rubbish, rimed doggerel, but their spirit was equal to that of any Christian martyr in a Roman amphitheatre. Greater love hath no man than this, that he lay down his life for his friend. Our chaps are doing that consciously, willingly, almost without bitterness toward their enemies; for the rest, it doesn't matter whether they sing hymns or rag-time. They've followed their ideal—freedom—and died for it. A former age expressed itself in Gregorian chants; ours, no less sincerely, disguises its feelings in rag-time.

Certificate of Improvements. NOTICE

Where located.—On the west side of head of Alice Arm.

TAKE NOTICE that I, Richard B. McGinnis, Free Miner's Certificate No. 11306, acting as agent for the Dolly Varden Mines Company, Free Miner's Certificate No. 921, C. intend, sixty days from the date hereof, to apply to the Mining Recorder for a Certificate of Improvements, for the purpose of obtaining a Crown Grant of the above claim.

Since September I have been less than a month out of action. The game doesn't pall as time goes on—it fascinates. We've got to win so that men may never again be tortured by the ingenious inquisition of modern warfare. The winning of the war becomes a personal affair to the chaps who are fighting. The world which sits behind the lines, buys extra specials of the daily papers, and eats three square meals a day will never know what this other world has endured for its safety, for no man of this other world will have the vocabulary in which to tell. But don't for a minute mistake me—we're grimly happy. What a serial I'll write for you if I emerge from this turmoil. Thank God, my outlook is all altered. I don't want to live any longer—only to live well.—Coningsby Dawson.

No Eggs, Milk or Butter

The following recipe shows how an appetizing, wholesome cake can be made without expensive ingredients.

In many other recipes the number of eggs may be reduced one-half or more by using an additional quantity of Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder, about a teaspoon, in place of each egg omitted.

EGGLESS, MILKLESS, BUTTERLESS CAKE

1 1/4 cups water	1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
1 cup seeded raisins	1/2 teaspoon salt
2 ounces citron	2 cups flour
1/2 cup shortening	5 teaspoons Dr. Price's Baking Powder

The old method (fruit cake) called for 2 eggs

DIRECTIONS—Put the first eight ingredients into saucepan and boil three minutes. When cool, add the flour and baking powder which have been sifted together; mix well. Bake in moderate oven in loaf pan (round tin with hole in center is best) for 35 or 40 minutes. Ice with white icing.

Booklet of recipes which economize in eggs and other expensive ingredients mailed free. Address 6 St. Lawrence Boulevard, Montreal.
