Prince Rupert people will learn with the greatest regret of the loss sustained by Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Christie in the death of their little daughter, Helen, who passed away at Cranbrook recently from the effect of a woodtick bite which developed into acute ascending paralysis. Helen, who was born in Prince Rupert, was six years old. Mr. Christie was formerly manager of the Canadian Bank of Commerce here and he and his family were extremely well liked by all with whom they came in contact. The deepest sympathy of their many friends and acquaintances in Prince Rupert will go out to them in their great loss.

In the Letter Box

Prince Rupert, June 3, 1917.
Sir:—As a result of one of my humble efforts to "start something somewhere" I received a letter from the Chairman of the Imperial Munitions Board as follows:—

May 8th, 1917.

Dear Sir:—The Prime Minister of Great Britain has forwarded to this Board your letter of Feb 23. If you are aware of any responsible firms who can make use of shipbuilding yards in Prince Rupert and who can produce steel ships for delivery by the fall of 1918, we will be pleased to receive proposals from them.

Yours truly,

J. FLAVELLE, Chairman.
