GEORGE McRAE, Applicant.BRITISH PURSES
NOT YET EMPTYLondon—The Times in an editorial entitled "Colossal Subscriptions," says:"Mr. Bonar Law announced in the House of Commons that the loan had brought at least £700,- 000,000 new money. The figure is necessarily provisional, for the applications are not yet fully counted. Indeed, numbers which arrived late in the provinces had not reached the Bank of England.
For full details we must wait until next week. This amazing subscription has been obtained, it must be remembered, at a time when we are raising the revenue by over £500,000,000. Not a penny moreover is included by way of direct applications by the banks themselves, which in 1915 provided £200,000,000 out of the £600,- 000,000 resulting from the issue of 4½ per cents. In 1915, too, a considerable proportion of the money subscribed by the public was for the purpose of fulfilling conditions imposed on the conversion of consols and the 3½ per cent loan. Nothing of that sort operated this time as an extraordinary inducement to investors.
This nation may well be proud of the result of the loan. The message will speak to the world in no uncertain accents."There are some things worth pointing out about the broad result. One is its amazing success.
But it is not the limit of what might have been attained. If anybody is disposed to imagine that the pockets of the public men are drained he must be very blind to the actual conditions throughout the country, also as to what is already going on in the city. It is very useful to be able to feel that if necessary any such loan as the present one can be brought out again at the proper time.Mid-winter sale at Geo. Tite's.
