The information received by the Registrar of the Supreme Court yesterday that a sitting of the Supreme Court to try civil cases will open in Prince Rupert on June 15th, is an aggravation of the annoyance felt by many citizens at the refusal of the Attorney General to allow the criminal cases from Prince Rupert to be tried in this city. At the time, it was assumed by most people that the decision was forced upon the Department by the arrangement of the Supreme Court judges dates. Now it is made clear that the decision was an arbitrary one, of a kind with the spirit which struck its pen through Prince Rupert's request for the Initiative and Referendum in its charter, and knifed its democratic aspirations. Now the citizens of Prince Rupert have to face this annoying anomaly, that at an enormous expense, and in defiance of their wishes, the witnesses in the fourteen strike cases must travel all the way to Victoria and stay there from June 5th until the end of the trial, while a Supreme Court judge will be sitting in Prince Rupert hearing civil cases from June 15th. In the case of some of the counsel, the hardship is even more keenly felt. Some of them are to appear in both the criminal and the civil cases, and if, as is probable, the criminal sittings are not over in time to permit them to return to Prince Rupert by June 15th, they will be obliged to let some of their cases go. There is no reason why the Supreme Court judge who will be sent there to hear the civil cases, could not try the criminal cases. The information received by the Registrar of the Supreme Court yesterday that a sitting of the Supreme Court to try civil cases will open in Prince Rupert on June 15th, is an aggravation of the annoyance telt by many citizens at the refusal of the Attorney General to allow the criminal cases from Prince Rupert to be tried in this city. The time, it was assumed by most people that the decision was an arbitrary one, of a kind with the spirit which struck its pen through prince Rupert's request for the Initiative and Referendum in its charter, and knifed its democratic aspirations. Now the citizens of Prince Rupert have to face this annoying anomaly, that at an enormous expense, and in defiance of their wishes, the witnesses in the fourteen strike cases must travel all the way to victoria and stay there from June 5th until the end of the trial, while a supreme Court judge will be sitting in Prince Rupert hearing civit cases, from June 15th. In the case of some of the counsel, the hardship is even more found yield. Some of their cases go. There is no reason why the Supreme Court judge who will be sent for the to permit them to return to Prince Rupert by June 15th, they will be obliged to let some of their cases go. There is no reason why the Supreme Court judge who will be sent for hear the civil cases, could not try the criminal case. All that is necessary, is to issue to him a commission of assize. To have done go in the present case would have meant a saving to the publicfunds of some $5,000 to $10,000 in money—the tax-payers' money—many hours and days of time to many citizens who find it to their disad.	Swan, an old man of sixty, who owned quite a lot of property here and at Swan Lake, was found dead today in his shack with the top of his head blown off.
