WILL TALK OF THE NORTH

F. H. Mobley Will Deliver Interesting Lecture Wednesday.

Of the many splendid addresses given last year in the Presbyterian Club the one by Mr. F. Mobley was among the very best. He himself has "whistled bits of ragtime at the end of all creation," and loves to tramp the wilds where the cariboo calls, and as he talks he imparts the thrill of God's great out-of-doors to his audience.

In his address, "Mushing It," on Wednesday night in the Presbyterian Hall, Mr. Mobley will again give some reminiscences of the northland. The general public is invited to all these lectures.
