McARTY AND WELLS THE NEXT BIG CARD

Tom McCarey Offers Englishman First Chance With New Champion

Los Angeles, Jan. 6.—Bombardier Wells may have the first chance at Luther McCarty's newly won ring honors, and at the same time a chance to take the title to England. The proposed Fourth of July international match is squarely up to the Briton today, and promoter McCarey is awaiting a cablegram from Freddie Welsh announcing the result.

Selecting Welsh as his ambassador, McCarey cabled the Pontypridd lightweight to ascertain Wells' terms and rush a reply. If the Bombardier wants anything short of the capitol at Sacramento, McCarey said he would give instructions to board a liner.

If Wells and McCarey are matched, McCarey plans to build a new arena on the site of the present historic fight shed. The new structure would seat 18,000 persons.

WILL CONDUCT RACE TRACKS IN THE WEST

Western Canada Remount Breeding Association Makes Application for Incorporation

Ottawa, Jan. 8.—Application will be made to parliament for an act to incorporate the Western Canada Remount Breeding Association with power to raise, import, export, buy, sell and deal in horses, thoroughbred stock fitted or to be made fitted for use in the army, the R. N. W. M.P., and all other military or semi-military organizations; to establish maintain and conduct, race track grounds, courses, places for the training, racing, and exercising of horses and the establishment of parks and places for athletic contests, games, entertainments and exhibitions in Saskatchewan, Alberta and British Columbia or elsewhere in Canada.

NO McCARTY MATCH FOR GUNBOAT SMITH

San Francisco, Jan. 8.—That Luther McCarty, whose defeat of Al. Palzer in Los Angeles on New Year's Day boosted him in the first rank of heavyweights, may never take on "Gunboat" Smith is the belief among fight followers here today, owing to the bitter differences existing between the managers of the fighters. Billy McCarney, who is handling McCarty, it is said, has turned down Jim Buckley, "Gunboat's" manager, on several occasions because once upon a time McCarty had aspirations to enter the New York field, but was prevented by Buckley.

HUGGINS OFFERS $4,000 FOR JIMMY SHECKARD

Chicago, Jan. 8.—Miller Huggins, manager of the St. Louis National League baseball team, has offered the Chicago National League club owners $4,000 for the veteran outfielder, "Jimmy" Sheckard. President Murphy is considering the offer. He previously had attempted to trade Sheckard to St. Louis for pitchers.

CANNIBALS SLAY AND EAT PLANTERS

Two Brothers Meet Horrible Fate in Wilds of New Guinea—Punitive Expedition to Be Sent.

Sydney, Jan. 8.—Butchered by natives in New Guinea was the fate of two planters named James and Hermann Weber. The men, who were brothers, had their plantation in the heart of the "Nigger Country," and were set upon by a savage tribe of cannibals who came from the unexplored regions inland.

No trace of their bodies has been found and it is thought that they were eaten by the blacks. The news was brought by friendly natives, who state that the same tribe has been carrying on a campaign of butchery throughout the district.
A punitive expedition has been formed with the idea of teaching the murderers a lesson.

AEROPLANE DESIGNER RESIDING IN RUPERT

Fred Clarke, of the Fishing Smack Rosine, Hopes to Fly Across Vancouver Harbor.

That there is living in Prince Rupert a young man to whom must be ascribed the honor of having built the first aeroplane ever turned out north of San Francisco will be a surprise to most residents of this city. His name is Fred Clarke and he is filling the position of engineer on the gasoline fishing smack Rosine of Vancouver, at present operating seines fishing for herring out in the harbor. Mr. Clarke, who is very well known in Vancouver, in which city he built his aeroplane, had it nearly finished and was awaiting certain parts necessary for its completion when he had the misfortune to have his machine burned up in the fire that recently destroyed the Hoffer boat house at English Bay, where he had it stored. The machine, which was after the English design known as the "Avro," was of the latest model, and a great deal of interest was being taken in its production. Nothing daunted, however, Mr. Clarke, upon completing the season up here with the Rosine, will again undertake the fulfillment of his heart's desire, that of flying his own aeroplane across Vancouver Harbor.

WINNIPEG O'BRIEN WOULD MEET BAYLEY

Prairie Born Boy Has a Good Reputation and Has Never Met Defeat in the Ring.

Calgary, Jan. 8.—Winnipeg O'Brien is asking about the chances for getting matched with either Joe Bayley or Pal Brown in the near future. As Tommy Burns has the "Closed for the Winter" sign tacked up at the Manchester arena, the chances of his appearing here for several months are very remote, but when the lid is again raised he should be considered in the match making. He is a simon pure Canadian product, having been born in Winnipeg. He has a splendid list of victories to his credit, among which are a fifteen round decision over Leo Kossick and a ten round one over Jack Nutt, in which bout the police stopped the men and Referee Tommy Burns awarded the verdict to O'Brien. He also got a draw with Freddie Welsh last year. He has never been defeated and his claim for a bout with Joe Bayley for the lightweight championship should be considered.

LANGFORD COMING HOME VERY SOON

Likely That Tar Baby and Joe Jeanette Will Be Matched by McCarey.

San Francisco, Jan. 8.—Sam Langford, the Boston negro heavyweight who recently knocked out Sam McVey in Australia, is coming to San Francisco about the last of January, according to word received here. Manager Joe Woodman expects to match Langford with Joe Jeanette, the battle to be staged in California. Langford has been away a long time and considerable curiosity is rife among fight fans as to how the Boston black shapes up.

CHAMBER OF MINES SECRETARY RESIGNS

Vancouver, Jan. 8.—Mr. F. J. Crossland, secretary of the Vancouver Chamber of Mines, has handed in his resignation to the executive board. He intends taking a trip to his home in England, from which he has been absent many years. The board is loth to part with Mr. Crossland, who has done good work for the mining industry and the Chamber of Mines. He was asked to reconsider his resignation, but declared that his decision was final.
