RUSO-GERMAN NAVAL FIGHT IN BALTIC SEA

ZEPPELIN DROPS BOMBS ON ENGLISH COAST--ITALIANS MAKE IMPORTANT MOVE

ALLIES CAPTURE TWO LINES OF TRENCHES IN DARDANELLES

AN HAMILTON REPORTS IMPORTANT GAIN ON LAND--AIDED BY WARSHIPS--SIR JOHN DICKSON REPORTS IMPORTANT CAPTURES IN ASIATIC TURKEY.

(Special to The Daily News.)
London, June 7.—Sir Ian Hamilton reports that the Allies in the Dardanelles have captured two lines of trenches over a three-front, making a general advance of 500 yards. Warships aided the movement. Among several hundred prisoners taken, six German sailors from the U-1.
In Asiatic Turkey.
London, June 7.—Sir John Dickson, in command of British operations along the Tigris, in Asiatic Turkey, reports the surrender of the German governor with 30 officers and 700 men.

General Gorringer's column captured in one day, 80 officers, 2,000 men, 7 field guns, 6 naval guns, the gunboat Mermais, a large river steamer, 3 small steamers and 12 steel barges. Further surrenders are expected.

REPORTED CAPTURE OF GENERAL TURNER FALSE

(Special to The Daily News.)
London, June 7.—Major General Hughes has received a message stating that General Turner had been captured, and is with the British. The report of the capture of General Turner came from Berlin, and is evidently an example of German fiction.

D. LLOYD GEORGE TOURS INDUSTRIAL CENTRES

London, June 7.—Mr David Lloyd George is making a tour of the British industrial centres in order to impress upon the men the necessity of devoting all their energies to aiding the Empire.

Mr. Lloyd George, in addressing the Liverpool dockers on Saturday, made the statement that nothing can pull us through the present serious situation except the united efforts of every man in the British Empire.

Mr. Lloyd George, in working the munitions department, intends to throw the main responsibility for the production of goods upon the various districts themselves, telling them what is wanted, giving them power to discipline employers and workmen and putting it up to them to deliver the goods. This is expected to eliminate red tape and centralized meddling.

MORE STEAMERS SPOILED--CREWS SAFE

(Special to The Daily News.)
London, June 7.—The steamer U-1 has been sunk off the coast of Aberdeen. The crews of the U-1 were safely landed.

THE ITALIAN BATTLEFRONT—Towards Triest the Italians have occupied Grado, a favorite bathing place for Austrians. Some progress also has been made toward Gorz. The Austrians may menace the Italian advance eastward by launching forces south from the Ploecken Pass.

NAVAL BATTLE IN BALTIC--GERMAN FLEET LEAVES KIEL

RUSSIAN AND GERMAN FLEETS FIGHTING AT ENTRANCE TO GULF OF RIGA--GERMANS LOSE TRANSPORTS -- A FRENCH MINE LAYER STRIKES MINE.

(Special to The Daily News.)
London, June 7.—There has been a naval engagement at the entrance to Gulf of Riga. The Germans lost several transports and one large unnamed warship.
The Russians lost an auxiliary ship.
The German fleet has left the Kiel Canal and joined in the engagement.

Mine Layer Strikes Mine.
Paris, June 7.—The French mine layer Casabianca struck a mine at the entrance to the Bay of Aegean. The captain and sixty-five of the crew were rescued by a British destroyer. It is believed the others reached shore and were made prisoners. She had a complement of 328 men.

GIGANTIC ZEPPELIN FOR BRITISH INVASION

Copenhagen, June 7.—A gigantic Zeppelin of an entirely new type caused surprise all along the Baltic Thursday when making a trial journey over the international route between Sweden and Denmark. It was visible from all the coast towns. The airship differs in form and dimensions from the earlier Zeppelins. It is heavily armored and is supplied with three reservoirs for poisonous gas.

Rotterdam, June 7.—Count Reventlow, writing in the Deutsche Tages Zeitung on the Zeppelin raid on London, which he describes as a "German attack on the outer forts of London," inferentially admits the raids are not for military purposes and that, so far, they have not had the slightest influence on the conduct of the war. He says:
"We hope that, in fine summer weather, activity in the air will be very great over Britain, not in small patches to make slight unrest, but on a great scale, regardless of everything, so that it either directly or indirectly will have some influence on the further course of the war. Pin pricks and half measures are worse than no good, they are even dangerous. The air war against Britain must either be on a great scale or nothing at all."

CONDITIONS THE SAME IN 1855.

European War, Prohibition and Mexico Popular Topics.
In the issue of April 24, 1855, of Graham's Daily Mail, a newspaper published in Philadelphia at that time, the leading articles were on "The European War and the Allies," "The Situation in Mexico," "Prohibition," and "Submarine Exploitations." The paper also commented on the high price of wheat, the intimation that Great Britain was too ambitious about "ruling the waves" and the need of more enlistments in the United States. The Crimean War was then in progress, and the allies were England and France.—Ex.

IMPORTANT ADVANCE BY ITALIAN TROOPS

(Special to The Daily News.)
Rome, June 7.—A general advance has begun across the Esone River from Capoerte to the sea, a distance of forty miles. The movement is of great importance. There has been hard fighting in the vicinity of Gradica and Udine. The Austrian resistance is growing stronger.

ZEPPELIN DROPS BOMBS ON ENGLISH EAST COAST

(Special to The Daily News.)
London, June 7.—A Zeppelin visited the east coast of England last night and dropped incendiary explosive bombs. Five persons were killed and forty injured. Two fires were caused by the incendiary bombs.

Later.
The Admiralty announces that the Zeppelin which visited England was blown to pieces over Belgium by British airmen.

WALTER SMITH HAS DIED OF WOUNDS

Word has been received in the city that Walter Smith, son of Verner W. Smith, a former resident of this city, has died from wounds. He was only about 18 years of age and attended the public school here. He enlisted with the first contingent in Vancouver and went to Valcartier for preparatory training. Shortly after going to France, he was wounded in the head, the report being that his skull was fractured. His uncle, J. A. Smith, received word Saturday that he had died in hospital from the injuries.

PREMIER ASQUITH AT BRITISH FRONT

British Headquarters, June 5.—Premier Asquith has just finished a busy visit of four days to the British front. The Premier had a conference with General Joffre, the French commander-in-chief, and M. Millerand, the French War Minister.

Mr. Asquith was intensely interested in all he saw. From a high eminence he had a splendid view of the British positions, the weather being beautifully clear.
The Premier at various points addressed the troops. The soldiers greeted him with the greatest enthusiasm, cheering lustily and waving caps and rifles in the air.

CANADIAN LOSSES AT THE FRONT NOW NUMBER 7442

Ottawa, June 8.—Casualty lists received by the Militia Department Friday contained the names of 12 Canadians killed, 98 injured and 5 missing. This makes the total casualties reported to Ottawa to date 7,442, of whom 1,431 have been killed, 4,781 wounded, while 1,530 are prisoners of war or missing.

THE SIGN OF THE LITTLE BLUE BUTTON

The newly organized Bartenders' union yesterday received their union bar cards, and today a committee is busy distributing the cards to the various hotels in the city entitled to display them. To the credit of all concerned, every licensed house in the city is union, and every bartender a union man. These cards are not only full of significance to the unionist, but are extremely artistic, and, like the cherry in the cocktail, no bar is complete without one.
