FANNIE WARD IN "THE CHEAT" AT THE MAJESTIC

Fannie Ward in "The Cheat" is the big attraction at the Majestic tonight and tomorrow. This is a five-act modern drama in which Miss Ward is given great opportunities to display her ability both as a comedienne and an actress possessing great dramatic power. As Edith Hardy, whose husband is a man of many business affairs, she has social ambitions and is interested in charity movements. Given control of a large sum of money for a charitable institution, she is tempted to take the money to cover stock speculations. The working out of her difficulties is full of complex and thrilling situations and furnishes a most exciting photoplay. There is also an Eclair Gazette and a special musical program.
