WESTHOLME THEATRE

The photoplay to be shown at the Westholme Theatre tonight is entitled "Heir to the Hoorah." It is a Western story which has been dramatized and which has been very successful. How the three bachelor miners, possessed of the rich mine called the "Hoorah" set about to get an heir for their wealth; how they draw lots to decide which will marry, and the complications arising therefrom finally put right by the "Heir" are graphically pictured. In addition to this attraction, there is a Topical Budget and a travelogue scenic. The orchestra also will put on a very fine selection of music.

London, April 28.—An official statement received here today from General Maude, commanding the British forces in Mesopotamia, says the British have driven the Turks from the west bank of the Shatt-el-Adhem, to about 17 miles north of the junction with the Tigris. General Maude's total captures on Sunday and Monday in the vicinity of Iztabilat were 687 prisoners, 15 guns and large quantities of rifles and munitions.

Concerning the actions in the vicinity of Iztabilat, and on the right bank of the Tigris the statement says:

Many Captures Made.
 "The full list of our captures for the two days, including those already reported, is 20 officers, 667 men, one gun of 5.9 calibre, 14 Krupp guns, two machine guns, 1,740 rifles, a quantity of hand grenades, 200 rounds of gun ammunition, 540,000 rounds of rifle ammunition, four limbers, 240 trucks, one crane, with spare wheels, and other stores, and sixteen engines."

In a message on Tuesday evening, General Maude reports:

"After a night march we made a surprise attack on one division of the thirteenth Turkish army corps on the west bank of the Shatt-el-Adhem, about 7 miles north of its junction with the Tigris. The enemy was driven from his position and fell back on the second Turkish division of the same corps, about 10 miles further north. In this action 131 prisoners were taken, including four officers, many transport animals and camels."
