

SAVE YOUR SIGHT

EYESIGHT—The most valuable of all the senses—is the most neglected and the least understood. Many suffer from it, which, upon examination, can be traced directly to defective eyesight.

The removal of the cause will often restore the delicate and run-down sufferer to robust health. When glasses are properly prescribed, they restore the vision to normal and eliminate all eye strain.

The Man in the Moon SAYS—

THAT some cynic after inquiring over the telephone from the Daily News who won the civic election began to sing the chorus of "Bubbles," and the office staff has ever since been wondering who it was.

THAT it is hoped the price of sugar will come down "in the sweet by and by."

THAT the ignorant man is one who is satisfied with his opinions and content with what he already knows. The educated realize their limitations and are always reaching out for something new.

THAT it is one of the greatest things in the world to be mayor of a city because the official soon learns much about himself that he never before even suspected.

THAT the man who is always thinking about his rights seldom thinks much about his duties.

THAT too much food and too little fresh air and exercise are at the bottom of most of our ills. They injure us much more than the sugar trust, the coal trust, the meat trust or any of the other imaginary ills that afflict us. Most are not used to having so much money as they have now so they try to eat and drink as much of it as possible.

THAT it is a mistake to take this world too seriously, especially in view of the fact that we cannot get out of it alive.

PRINCE GEORGE

Edwin Hilton, janitor of the Central School, received from the War Office last Tuesday, the Military Medal which he won as sergeant at Hill 70 when he obtained valuable information which resulted in the rout of the enemy in an action at that point.

Charles A. Pyne, local agent for the Sovereign Life Insurance Co., has been appointed manager for the entire province of British Columbia.

From all indications there is to be a big influx of settlers in the Salmon River district this year. A road is to be put into the valley by the government, it is believed, which will branch off from the main road at Summit Lake. Several people from the Central states are considering settling there this spring. Much interest is being taken in the district by Scandinavian farmers in Minnesota.

The annual report of the Police Magistrate for this city shows a total of 161 cases dealt with in the Police Court, with 132 convictions secured. The large majority of the cases were for disorderly houses with breaches of the Prohibition Act coming second. The amount secured in fines penalties and costs amounted to $1,465.50.

The Woman's Auxiliary of the First Presbyterian Church had a pleasant and profitable afternoon meeting at the home of Mrs. Frank Flower on Tuesday afternoon when plans for the season's endeavor were made.

COUNCIL HUMOR

Alderman Casey Would Act as Preserver of the Peace.

Alderman Rochester, in congratulating the mayor on his reelection, last night said that the public had made a good choice under the circumstances. He hoped he would meet with success and have good support from the council.

Alderman Casey suggested that he might go along to the joint meeting of the School Board and City Council in the wilds of Hays Cove Circle this afternoon and thus ensure no harm coming to either Trustee Patmore or Alderman Perry at each others hands.
