

CITY OFFICERS WERE ARRESTED

According Prince George Citizen Ex-City Clerk and Police Commissioner are Charged.

Sensational charges have been laid against two civic officials of Prince George in the persons of ex-city clerk G. R. Fisher and police commissioner Ex-Alderman T. M. Watson. The former was arrested on Saturday last and the latter last Thursday, according to the Prince George Citizen.

The arrest of G. R. Fisher followed a special audit of the city's books by Kendall, Barr & Co., the city auditors. Discrepancies totalling a considerable sum were found, which indicated that the city clerk had misappropriated city funds to his own purposes. Ex-City Clerk Fisher is a returned man and was discharged by Mayor Perry shortly after his coming into office this year.

Police Commissioner Watson, who is a member of the commission by virtue of his heading the polls in the 1919 elections for this office, is charged with bribing a police officer, the charge being preferred by Chief Stewart.

RAISE FOR WATER WORKS EMPLOYEES GIVEN LAST NIGHT

The report of the Board of Works that certain increases in wages to employees of the water department be granted was adopted. The increase granted provides for a raise in salary of Superintendent R. E. Walker from $176 to $185. Pipefitters Booth and Gustafson are both to get $6.24 per day instead of $6 as heretofore. The crew at Shawatlans are not raised, as their work is nearly through.

Ald. McLennan found fault with the matter of the applicants stating the percentages wanted. This matter should be left with the committee in charge for decision.

Alderman Kerr drew attention to the statement of the application that living costs had gone up 90 per cent since 1914. This was based on the finding of the recent Conciliation Board but was wrong. The cost of living, he maintained, had gone up much more than that.

Sport Briefs

The appearance of new football players in the city causes much gratification in sport circles especially on account of the quality of playing some of these men have shown. This will promote a better class of playing and a greater interest in the game. The tricks and stunts of the old players are so well known that both players and spectators know pretty well what will happen and how they will perform. The new players are at the same time interesting to their opponents and to those watching the games. It keeps football from being too monotonous and acts as a tonic for the sport.

Dr. A. H. Bayne is by providence deeded a halibut fisherman. He was out over the week-end near Metlakatla trolling for the wary spring salmon when he felt an immense tug on the line. It was undoubtedly something alive for it pulled but not with the jerking and darting of the spring when snared on the hook of a fortunate fisherman. And that fish did pull for all it was worth, just like one would imagine a steady old tug boat would. Anyway the doctor pulled up his line and what did he land but a 100-lb. halibut who had gone astray from the usual fields and had got hungry doing so. It is not known whether the doctor took advantage of the 20c prices and sold the big fish for $20 or not.

Folks who went up to the Acropolis grounds on Saturday to witness the football game remarked rather cruelly about Prince Rupert when they saw a little snow around the edges of the field and the players weren't any too gratified when they had to step in it either. There are worse places, however, furthest Edmonton. The following is taken from last Thursday's Bulletin: "A visit to the Diamond park is not very encouraging to the fans these days for there is nothing but ice and snow as far as the eye can reach inside of the deplorable board fence that surrounds the desolate looking ball park. In places the ice is a foot thick."

T. P. would soon be resuming its week end mail carrying service.
