SECRETARY ON STRIKE AT THE DOLLY VARDEN

Says Company Plans a Modern Camp But Difficult to Get Lumber.

VANCOUVER, May 1.Referring to the Dolly Varden strike, L. R. Scett, secretary for the company, today reviewed the question of wages and the conditions under which the men live at the mine, as well as the conditions asked for. He laid emphasis on the fact that the strike was engineered by the One Big Union and that difficulty was experienced in obtaining lumber and labor.

Mr. Scott said that the working season was only six or seven nontus and consequently labor for construction work was difficult to obtain. The company was planning to make the camp the most comfortable and modern in the province, but it could not be done at once, especially in view of the difficulties being encoun-
