

Be Your Own Doctor.

When you meet with an accident—a cut, a burn, a scald or a bruise—don't spend money needlessly in doctor's bills, but apply Zam-Buk at once. This herbal balm will end the pain, stop the bleeding, prevent festering and heal quickly. Keep a box handy.

For skin troubles Zam-Buk is equally invaluable. A skin disease cured by Zam-Buk does not break out again, because Zam-Buk cures from the "root" up.

Zam-Buk is best for eczema, boils, blood-poisoning and piles. All dealers 50c. box.

The Editor Daily News:

With further reference to Premier Oliver's statement of the 25th inst., that there had not been any escapes from the Girls' Industrial Home in Vancouver, or "hosing" done during his administration, and while in charge of the present Superintendent Miss Bayne, I wish to make it clear that I flatly contradict such statement, and I am not talking from hear-say, as I was only one of a number who was searching for the girls on several occasions and one of a number who witnessed the "hosing" and it was I who turned the water off, as I could not stand to see it done.

I note in the newspaper of the 27th inst. that Miss Bayne has been interviewed on the subject, and refutes my statement. I also note that she refused to give information on certain dates, because she did not wish to mix in politics, and that the institution had the lowest percentage of run-aways in Canada.

Now I consider this is getting away from the question, as we are not dealing with all the institutions in Canada, nor do I wish to mix up in politics. The matter is a simple one, and should be investigated in a proper manner. My suggestion is that there be a judge appointed, and we give our evidence on oath, and he will do the refuting of statements.

Last evening Constable Ponder arrived from Buckley Bay, having in his charge Matt Larsen who has been sentenced to six months at Okalla Farm on a charge of inflicting grievous bodily harm.

ST. ANDREW'S CLUB HAD SOCIAL NIGHT

Whist Drive, Concert and Dance, as Well as Presentation to Mr. and Mrs. Algie Hunter.

St. Andrew's hall was the scene of a delightful social gathering last night in the form of a whist drive, concert and dance. The rooms were well filled and the affair was most enjoyable to all those present. In the whist drive first prizes went to Miss Alexina Wood and Russell McIlraith while Miss Jessie McIlraith and D. White received the consolation awards.

Taking part in the concert were J. Y. Fraser, Mrs. Jarvis McLeod and Bob Robertson, who gave solos. Mrs. Captain and Miss Susie Reid gave a delightful duet and Mr. Barclay a violin solo. Mr. Westwood was appreciated in his recitations. Sid Thompson made a very acceptable accompanist.

An especially pleasant happening was the presentation of a beautiful set of cutlery to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur (Algie) Hunter by President S. D. Macdonald on behalf of the society. Mr. Hunter, who is an old timer, returned to the city about a month ago after a long service overseas where he found his bride. He made suitable response, telling of his and his wife's appreciation.

Following splendid refreshments provided by the Ladies' Auxiliary being dispensed with, the merrymakers adjourned to the dance hall where they danced till well after midnight to the tune of strains of music provided by various volunteers. In charge of the whole event were J. Brough, W. G. Dennis and James Irvine.

TEMPERANCE SOCIETY SUCCESSFUL SALE

Endeavor Being Made to Raise Sufficient Funds to Bring Prohibition Speaker From South.

The sale of home cooking held yesterday afternoon in the Red Cross hut on Third Avenue by the Women's Christian Temperance Union in aid of the prohibition campaign funds was a complete success and already the sum of $89.20 has been realized. There are several raffles that have not yet been completed so it is expected by the ladies that their aim for $100 for this sale will be reached before the final reckoning is made. The Union hopes to bring a good speaker from the south to lay the case of prohibition before the electors of Prince Rupert and with this object in view their efforts are now being made.

The sale yesterday was in charge of Mesdames E. C. Kirkpatrick, Perkins, F. W. Hart and J. G. Weston who were ably assisted by Mesdames Larkin, Peyton and B. E. Webster.

CORNER CLUB GIVES ANOTHER SOCIAL

Fred Shaw, Jr., is Recipient of Presentation from his Fellow Members

Another pleasant gathering was held in the social rooms of the Baptist Church last night (this time under the auspices of the Corner Club, who are going to reorganize their regular Friday night entertainments early next month. There was a good attendance and the evening quickly passed with games and a delightful program. Refreshments provided by the social committee proved an added source of enjoyment.

During the course of the evening Fred Shaw, Jr., was presented with a wallet by Rev. Jas. Dunlop on behalf of the Corner Club. Mr. Shaw's departure from the city will be regretted by the Club of which he was an enthusiastic and energetic member.

In the police court this morning five cases of drunkenness were disposed of. One pleaded not guilty but the evidence of Sgt. Adams and A. Ceconi secured a conviction.

Mrs. S. Boyle and Mrs. B. B. Boyle of Port Clements are among the recent arrivals in the city.

Major General Blacklock returned up river this morning after a brief visit in the city.

BIRK'S French Ivory

This is not a mere ivory real ivory - it never was used as such. But it is an ivory substitute made in the manufacture of ivory table appointments, such as crack, split, or broken ivory. Birk's French Ivory is the finest made - a genuine ivory substitute. It is engraved in a manner that makes it impossible to tell from the real thing.
