SIX VACANCIES
IN THE SENATE

Many Names are Mentioned as Probable Selections to Upper House.

TORONTO, August 30.—With the death of Senator J. M. Douglas at Tantalus, Sask., there are six senatorial vacancies to fill—two in Ontario and one each in British Columbia, Alberta, Saskatchewan and Nova Scotia, says the Toronto Globe. The Ontario senators are expected to be selected from among three men: Hon. J. D. Reid, ministers of railways and canals; W. R. Smyth, ex-member for East Algoma, and Hon. T. W. Crothers, ex-minister of labor. The British Columbia senatorship will be filled—it is anticipated—by either the Hon. R. F. Green, M.P., and ex-member of the McBride administration, or C. W. Peck, V.C., M.P. Alberta's vacancy may be filled by either "Jimmy" Douglas, member for Strathcona, or W. A. Buchanan, M.P., who still remains a member of the Government party, though he took an independent stand on the Budget. In Saskatchewan, where a vacancy has just been created by the death of Senator Douglas, no name stands out prominently, although the applicants are reported to be "too numerous to mention." Out of Nova Scotia the Senate will get, according to loud rumors, either Hector McInnes, K.C., ex-M.P.P., or John Stanfield, ex-member for Colchester.

ALASKA BOATS ARE BACK TO TEN-DAY
WINTER SCHEDULE

The Princess Mary arrived from the south at noon today and left shortly after for Alaskan points, making the last weekly trip of the Canadian Pacific tourist schedule. From now on a ten-day service will be maintained throughout the winter. This service will be inaugurated by the Princess Alice next Monday when she arrives from the south and will be maintained throughout September by the same vessel which will be replaced in October by the Princess Mary which vessel will run all winter.

J. McLeod, of Kirkpatrick & Harper, arrived home last night from a holiday visit to Lakelse Lake.

sons," he said, "but they were to get all those handling liquor in this city. I was not directed to the Royal Hotel and I did not know they were carrying liquor until I bought a bottle from 'Dad' in the basement a couple of days before this. I couldn't get liquor at the Savoy when I tried, neither could I get it at the Prince Rupert. At Black's Hotel I was told that they didn't do business with two men. I didn't go back to those places when I had been refused once. I was just getting acquainted for a while and did not do any actual work. To get my evidence it was necessary for me to mix up and act foolishly at times. I might say that I was told just yesterday a friend of mine was offered several hundred dollars to swear that I offered to give him whiskey. I had to get a line up on the liquor, find where it was, and who was selling it."

"Do you mean to tell me," asked Mr. Patmore, "that your visits down the line were for that purpose?"

"I do."

"Oh, tell it to Sweeney."

"I would if he were here," reiterated the detective, "and he is a good Irishman, too."

Before adjournment was made by Magistrate McMordie until tomorrow morning Detective Money, Sergeant Adams and the accused himself were heard. McKay has been released on $1,000 bail.

CLAIMS HE CAN CHANGE SEX OF BARNYARD FOWL

PARIS, Aug. 30.—Although he has not succeeded thus far in obtaining eggs from roosters, Prof. Pezard, who is taking part in the congress of psychologists at the Sorbonne, says that after fifteen years of experiments with fowls he has obtained miraculous results, which prove that it is not impossible to change at will the sex of the barnyard fowl.

Prof. Pezard's revelations soon will be presented before the French Academy of Sciences. Meanwhile he refuses to divulge details of his experiments and has warned his conferees against fantastic hypotheses, as there is nothing available yet to prove that the inversion of the human sex is logical.

RHEUMATISM FOR

Since Taking "Fruit-a-tives"

103 CHURCH ST., MONTREAL.
 "I was a great sufferer from Rheumatism for over 16 years. I consulted specialists; took medicine; used lotions; but nothing did me good."

Then I began to use "Fruit-a-tives", and in 15 days the pain was easier and the Rheumatism much better. Gradually, "Fruit-a-tives" overcame my Rheumatism; and now, for five years, I have had no return of the trouble. I cordially recommend this fruit medicine to all sufferers."

High, 9:28 a.m., 19.5 ft.
 13:07 p.m., 18.9 ft.
 Low, 6:58 a.m., 3.7 ft.
 19:09 p.m., 6.0 ft.

Sunday, August 29

 13:35 p.m., 19.5 ft.
 Low, 7:28 a.m., 3.3 ft.
 19:41 p.m., 5.2 ft.

The time used is Pacific Standard, for the 120th Meridian west. It is counted from 0 to 24 hours from midnight to midnight.

The table given is for Port Simpson but the time for Prince Rupert varies only a few minutes on some days and on others is the same. The range of the tide may be computed as 5 per cent greater at Prince Rupert than at Port Simpson both at springs and neaps. Therefore the rise in the Prince Rupert harbor is slightly greater than Port Simpson.

The height is in feet and tenths of feet above the average level of lower low water.

FIRST CONCERT
THIS SEASON

Musical Society opens with the Greatest Artists in Western America for First Programme

Mrs. Fahey, the finest operatic soprano in the whole of Western America, is to be the star at the opening concert of the Prince Rupert Musical Society on Tuesday, September 14, in the Westholme Theatre. The society has been able to arrange for a visit from this talented lady before she leaves on an extended tour of the eastern cities. Mrs. Fahey, whose home is in Victoria, is already well known to many of the Prince Rupert citizens and these are delighted at the prospect of hearing her again here.

That a concert or series of concerts such as this will be appreciated by the citizens of Prince Rupert is already proven by the large number of patrons who are backing the Musical Society financially in its efforts in placing the very best artists in the musical world before a Prince Rupert audience. Distant as this place is from the nearest city, it is not on every occasion that a visit from the best singers can be arranged, on account of the time spent travelling. Nevertheless, the Musical Society has in mind the bringing to this city from time to time some of the best musicians on the continent.

When Mrs. Fahey appears in the south, she always commands high prices and a crowded audience and a singer of her standing will be none the less appreciated here.

INTEREST TAKEN IN
ALICE ARM MINES

Work Starting on Several Properties—Esperanza Reported to be Bonded.

ALICE ARM, August 30.—The same interests that bonded the Moose group have been investigating the Esperanza group close to town here. This is a high-grade native and ruby silver and argentine prospect and some rich stuff has been taken out. A quantity of the ore is now lying on the side of the railway awaiting shipment to the smelter at Tacoma. Work is starting on the Silver-tip extension owned by Wolverton, Hammond and Bruggy. Practically nothing has yet been done on this property yet, but the surface showings are said to be very similar to the Dolly Varden and are very extensive.

The curious thing about the Dolly Varden and other properties in that neighborhood is that the surface showings do not give any results. Not until the capping is removed does the silver ore carry any values.

The La Rose Co. is about to start work. This property is about eight miles up the Kitsault river on the west side.

Ten Years Ago
in Prince Rupert

August 30, 1910.

Mrs. W. E. Williams left on the steamer Prince George last night for Victoria where she will undergo an operation.

H. B. Campbell has moved into his new premises in the Turner and Bennett Block on Third Ave. and has opened up a most complete line of cigars, etc.

Railway and city lock horns—Council stands pat on assessment and railway declares war—Meanwhile the company will spend nothing further on improvements.

"As the representative of the Tsimpsean Power Company, I may say that the company realizes that the City Council is not ready to approach the lighting and power question and as our company have no special object in forcing the proposition at the present time we will withdraw the offer," was the comment of B. Brutinel, who offered to bring relief to the city in the matter of light and power supply.
