bound passenger from Stewart last night on the Prince George en route for Vancouver. Mr.
Reichenbach was formerly on the staff of the Frizzell Markets in this city.

Exhibition officials state that the fair posters are not being posted up as conspicuously in business houses as they might be.
It is felt that every poster has its advertising value in bringing more people here for the annual event.

Alderman and Mrs. C. C. Perry and family returned from the south on the Princess Beatrice Saturday afternoon. Mr. Perry was at Ocean Falls and Swanson Bay, while Mrs. Perry and children have been having a holiday in from Stewart where he has just completed the building of the new wharf. His piledriver, which was used in the work, arrived in the afternoon, having been towed here by a tug. It will be used in the work of the new G. T. P. dock here.

Hon. John Oliver, Premier of British Columbia, and Hon. T. D.
Pattullo, Minister of Lands, returned last night by the Prince George from a successful speaking tour to Anyox, Alice Arm and Stewart. They proceeded east this morning accompanied by Mr.
Walker, of the Vancouver Province. The premier will return to Victoria by the Pacific Great Eastern railway.

Arvid A. Erickson, secretary to Mayor J. E. Meyers of Minneapolis, accompanied by Mrs. Erickson, passed through the city last evening from the train to the Prince George going south. They are touring the west on a holiday trip and were much enthused over what they saw on the route of the G. T. P. Mr. Erickson, however, suggesting that more publicity work would greatly increase business and make the travelling much more pleasant and instructive to tourists.
