Local Member Outlines Work.
Hon. T. D. Pattullo has given in this number of the Daily News an outline of the work accomplished by the Oliver Government and also something of what they expect to do. They came into existence at a time when the condition in the province was at its lowest ebb. They have fought against tremendous odds and have brought the province through those difficult times to a place where they can now resume normal expansion. Up to the present they have been unable to borrow money for new work. It took them all the time paying off the old debts. Now things are changing.
We take it that no one claims the Oliver Government has been a perfect institution or that it has carried out all the wishes of the people. There are many problems to solve yet, and the ordinary person does not understand all the difficulties. In all governments too there has to be a give and take policy. All do not see alike. The problems are thrashed out in caucus or in executive council and the proceedings are not published in the press. No one knows how hard our own local member, for instance, has fought for some of the reforms which he thinks should be brought about. He has done a good deal but there is more to do. We suggest the caption "Let Pattullo finish his work." He has started well. He is just beginning to get for us the much needed local improvements, and if he is re-elected he will doubtless see that they are carried out. He is no carpet-bagger. He has his interests here, although in carrying out his duties as minister of lands he has to live in Victoria.

Study Carefully All Platforms.
We suggest to readers of the Daily News that they carefully study all the platforms and pledges that are put before them and also consider the calibre of the men and their records. We shall do our best to point out from time to time, in a reasonable spirit, without unnecessary personalities, some of the features of the present campaign. We ask them also to study the personality of the men who are offering themselves for election. Another thing to remember, and a very important one, is what policy will be supported by each candidate should he be elected. What leader will he follow? We have all seen what has happened to the lone voice in the Legislature. It has done nothing and got nowhere.

This is an age of co-operation and organization. When a group of people with somewhat similar opinions organize to carry out a policy, that group becomes a party. They soon are labelled, if they stand for anything.
The Liberal party is an organized section of the country banded together to carry out certain definite policies. It is the party of progress. The opposing party is labelled Conservative. It stands for marking time, for holding on in the old way. There are Socialists and Laborites and Farmers, but when it comes to lining up in the Legislature the members will have to adopt the leadership of either Mr. Oliver or Mr. Bowser and will be either for the Government or against it. They may tell the electors a different story, but the history of the past is that they will be either for the Government or against it. They will be members of the Government party or the opposition.
In this district, Hon. T. D. Pattullo is a member of the Oliver Government. He is one of the leaders of Liberalism and he will support Premier John Oliver. We believe that the interests of the province and of the Prince Rupert district can best be served by returning Mr. Pattullo again as the representative of the district.

20:41 p.m., 1.9 feet.

The time used is Pacific Standard, for the 120th Meridian west. It is counted from 0 to 24 hours from midnight to midnight.
The table given is for Port Simpson but the time for Prince Rupert varies only a few minutes on some days and on others is the same. The range of the tide may be computed as 5 per cent greater at Prince Rupert than at Port Simpson both at springs and neaps. Therefore the rise in the Prince Rupert harbor is slightly greater than Port Simpson.
The height is in feet and tenths of feet above the average level of lower low water.

MYSTERY HOBO SUPPER HELD

Original Affair Last Night at the Baptist Church Parlors Was Interesting.

Prince Rupert is ever original and up to date in her hospitality. None of her people will ever die of ennui. An entertainment both original and up to date was given in the Baptist Church parlors last night when Rev. James Dunlop and Mr. Bowler gave a Hallow-e'en hobo supper to a company of their male friends. It was an old country banquet with the new country spirit and the fellowship of the west.

There were present hobos from old Virginia, from old England, from the Welsh valleys, from old Scotia and also there were some of Canada's native sons. These have all drifted into Rupert, no one knows why. They stay in Rupert, no one knows why, they left Rupert but came back, no one knows why, they're here because they're here.

Mr. Bowler acted as croupier. The chief merry-maker was Monsieur Ave Kal Dray, the wizard musician Von Bill Dav Vies. The artists were the hobos.

Mr. Bowler proposed the toast to the ladies--absent. This was acknowledged by P. H. Linzey.

Mr. Davis proposed the toast of the homeless hobos, Mr. Dunlop responding.

The toast of the hobos who wish to be homeless was proposed by Mr. Rose and acknowledged by D. Linzey.

The toast of the hobos who are seeking homes was proposed by Mr. Kendall and to this Mr. Lemon replied.

One of the hobos referred to the fact that hobos were homeless in the far west simply because a home was consignment to hard labor and thin rations with no hope of reprieve. To cook meals for two instead of one, to work for two instead of one, to add to personal worries the worries of another person was sheer inhuman bondage and opposed to the free spirit of the road.

Hobo Davies kept the brotherhood of the road bright with music. Hobo Goudray, with his rare elocutionary gifts, made the fleeting hours swifter. At 10:30 they all took to the road. The menu was as follows:
