LIKE A MAGNET

THE manner in which Zam-Buk draws disease and poison out of the skin has been aptly described as "magnetic." Sores and wounds are cleansed and soothed, new healthy skin grown, in a way which is a positive revelation in the art of skin-healing.

Even obstinate and long-standing sores yield in an astonishing way, for Zam-Buk has antiseptic and germicidal properties that cannot be found in any other preparation. Zam-Buk

Draws Disease out of the Skin.

The marvellous success of Zam-Buk is due to its rare herbal origin and the scientific methods employed in its blending, refinement and concentration. Then Zam-Buk is entirely free from the animal fats and mineral impurities which make common ointments and salves harmful and even dangerous to some skins.

Dr. Patterson Shibley, of 1903, Wyoming Avenue, Washington, D.C., writes:—
"For sixteen years I have used Zam-Buk in my practice and know nothing to compare with it in skin trouble, from eczema and irritation to chronic skin disease. Zam-Buk, without doubt, has wonderful curative properties, and I always recommend it in preference to other remedies."

Of all druggists and stores 50c. per box, or from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, 25c. per box. Postage, 1c. if it is sent by return post.

1000 Eggs in Every Hen

New System of Poultry Keeping — Get Dollar a Dozen Eggs — Famous Poultryman

TELLS HOW

"The great trouble with the poultry business has always been that the laying life of a hen was too short," says Roy Traill, International Poultry Expert and Breeder, for nearly eighteen years Editor of Poultry Success.

The average pullet lays 150 eggs. If kept the second year, she may lay 100 more. Then she goes to market. Yet, it has been scientifically established that every pullet is born or hatched with over one thousand minute egg germs in her system, and will lay them on a highly profitable basis over a period of four to six years' time if given proper care.

How to work to get 1,000 eggs from every hen; how to get pullets laying early; how to make the old hens lay like pullets; how to keep up heavy egg production all through cold winter months when eggs are highest; triple egg production; make slackers hens bustle; $5.00 profit from every hen in six winter months. These and many other money making poultry secrets are contained in Mr. Traill's 1,000 EGG HEN system of poultry raising. One copy of which will be sent absolutely free to any reader of this paper who keeps six hens or more. Eggs should go for a dollar or more a dozen this winter. This means big profit to the poultry keeper who gets the eggs. Mr. Traill tells how. If you keep chickens and want them to make money for you, cut out this ad and send it with your name and address to Roy Traill, N.Y., and a free copy of "THE 1,000 EGG HEN" will be sent by return mail.

ALICE ARM HOTEL SOLD

Ole Evindsen Completed Deal Last Night to D. Zarelli and Miss E. McCoy.

The Alice Arm Hotel has been sold by Ole Evindsen, who built it some years ago, to D. Zarelli and Miss Elsie McCoy, of this city. The deal, which has been pending for some days, was completed last evening in the office of Patmore & Fulton and the sum involved is somewhat over $20,000.

The new owners will take possession about November 10 and until that time Mr. Evindsen will still be in charge at Alice Arm, having returned there by the Prince George last night. Mr. Zarelli leaves tonight for Victoria and will be back in a week or so en route to Alice Arm with his family.

Although he has sold his property Mr. Evindsen does not intend to leave Alice Arm. He will establish his family in the vicinity of Vancouver and will then return north himself to look after his various properties in the vicinity. He may, eventually, go further north.

Mr. Evindsen has conducted the Alice Arm Hotel with success and his house has always been well spoken of by travellers who had occasion to stay there. His departure from the place will be regretted by many but it is expected that the same standard will be kept up by his successors.

The deal also includes the Ruby Tub, Limited, and the lots upon which the hotel stands.

O. B. Bush of Stewart left for Anyox last night where he will confer in connection with the forthcoming election campaign.
