LIKE A MAGNET

THE manner in which Zam-Buk draws disease and poison out of the skin has been aptly described as "magnetic." Sores and wounds are cleansed and soothed, new healthy skin grown, in a way which is a positive revelation in the art of skin-healing.

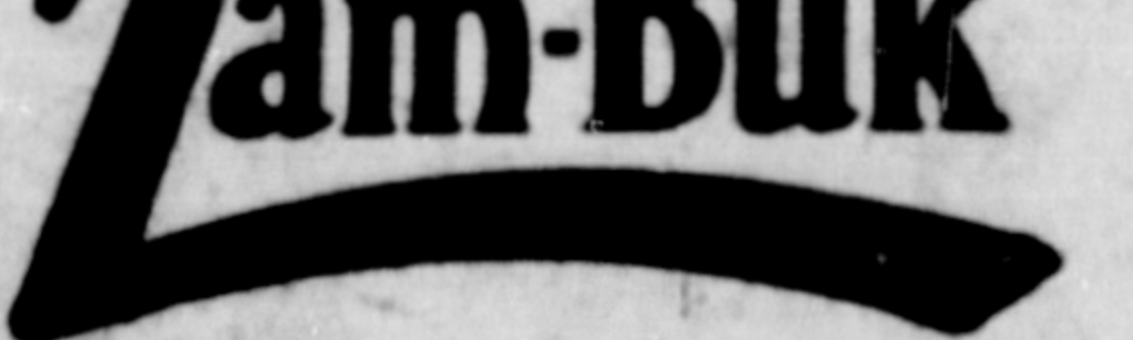

Even obstinate and long-standing sores yield in an astonishing way, for Zam-Buk has antiseptic and germicidal properties that cannot be found in any other preparation. Zam-Buk

Draws Disease out of the Skin.

The marvellous success of Zam-Buk is due to its rare herbal origin and the scientific methods employed in its blending, refinement and concentration. Then Zam-Buk is entirely free from the animal fats and mineral impurities which make common ointments and salves harmful and even dangerous to some skins.

Dr. Patterson Shibley, of 1869 Wyoming Avenue, Washington, D. C. writes:—
"For sixteen years I have used Zam-Buk in my practice and know nothing to compare with it in skin trouble, from roughness and irritation to chronic skin disease. Zam-Buk, without doubt, has wonderful curative properties, and I always recommend it in preference to other remedies."

Of all druggists and stores 50c per box, or from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto. FREE Trial sample on request if 1c. stamp is sent (for return postage).

PRINCE GEORGE

The assize docket here before Mr. Justice Murphy is the largest both in civil and criminal cases outside of Vancouver. The three most important cases are Rex vs. Abe Brink, accused of stabbing; Rex vs. Watson, the police commissioner charged with accepting bribes, and Rex vs. Ogle, charged with the murder of Thomas Dodd at Mud River on July 26. Stuart Henderson and P. E. Wilson are conducting the defence in the Ogle case.

The Grand Jury at the assizes has entered a report criticizing the government buildings and setting forth the necessity of proper court house and jail.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Wilson last Friday evening the Boy Scouts mustered to present to Rev. Mr. Pollinger a purse marking their appreciation of his efforts as scoutmaster. Mr. Pollinger leaves shortly for England.

Alex Ogston was host at a delightful dinner in the Alexandra Hotel on Thanksgiving Day.

CARD OF THANKS.

I wish to show my appreciation and to thank the many friends for their great help and kindness to my father during his illness, and to myself during my recent bereavement.

HYPNOTISM ENTERS DOMAIN OF MOVIES

Herbert Buchanan is a man of wealth, but, of morose and misanthropic temperament, a profound student of mesmerism, hypnotism, and other mental sciences. He takes a strong fancy to a young woman who dislikes him and is in love with another and younger man, but who agrees, while under the spell of his hypnotic influence, to marry him.

One night, in a fit of moodiness, Buchanan disappears. His wife goes abroad, where she meets the sweetheart of other days. Just as matters are reaching a critical stage for the two, the woman receives word that a body resembling that of her missing husband is lying in an American morgue, awaiting identification. She sails for the United States, identifies the corpse as Buchanan, and is thus set free to marry the man of her choice.

Then the missing Buchanan turns up as a disreputable tramp, and complications of an interesting and exciting nature develop. From the standpoint of plot, the story is one of the best shown here this year. It "reads" like a book, flowing along smoothly and entertainingly. Its chief appeal is to women and its theme is domestic happiness.

The story is told in picture tonight at the Empress Theatre.

The Man in the Moon SAYS—

THAT surgeons are very clever but they have never yet found a way to remove the conscience.

THAT tintinnabulation is the sound a tin Lizzie makes when driven over Prince Rupert's asphalt streets.

THAT a blond is always a light sleeper.

THAT when a man talks about "our latent resources" everyone knows he has nothing to say.

THAT, according to some authorities, Prince Rupert is being deprived of everything except free speech.

THAT there has not been a word about "coal barons" so far in this section. It is about time they were introduced as a subject for argument or denunciation.

THAT only a short time ago Pat Daly was looking for a Liberal nomination. Now he has a labor nomination.

THAT in this city there seem to be parties in the field who would welcome any old nomination if they could only get it.

THAT some candidates seem to think that a program of abuse without anything constructive will appeal to the people.

THAT the Elks seem to want to go on a skate.

THAT they might wait until after the Legislature meets.

THAT according to some authorities the only thing the Government has left is nerve.

THAT nerve often carries people to victory.

THAT again in connection with the present election campaign is the spectacle of the little cur snarling at the heels of the mastiff.

THAT "if you plead guilty which you are, the court will be easy with you. But if you plead not guilty, which you aren't, and the court finds you guilty, which it will, it'll go hard with you. What do you plead?"

THAT the nuns in a Prague convent set up a soviet so they sent for the canon to suppress them. Some maxims were used before they capitulated.

THAT some of the civic authorities in the south have been investigating the odors emanating from fish offal plants. Why investigate? The thing is apparent enough for anybody.

Oliver H. Hall, manager of the Royal Bank at Telkwa, arrived from the interior last night and left on the Prince George this morning for Vancouver and Victoria where he will spend a three weeks' holiday. During his absence Mr. Shuttlewood of the Burns Lake branch, is in charge at Telkwa.
