FIRST GAMES ARE PLAYED

Basketball League Had Opening Matches Last Evening—Good Attendance.

There was a splendid turnout at the Athletic Hall last evening for the opening basketball game of the season and the matches were pulled off with dispatch, everything being on time to the minute.

The King Edward and Spartan girls' teams played to a 6-6 draw in the time, but as they were becoming tired and it was the desire to keep the following games on time no overtime was played. The players were:

King Edward—D. Stephens (2), A. Morrison (2), M. Casey, K. Ryan (2), and L. Parker.

Spartans—V. Shockey (4), W. Dibb, M. Palmer, C. Kershaw and M. Lancaster (2).

Seniors.

The Senior League game between the Colts and the Callies was the best of the three games played, the former team winning by a score of 33-20. The lineup and scoring for this game was as follows:

Colts—Butler (4), Hardy, Eason (7), Mitchell (8), Smith (10), Shaw (for Hardy, second half), Greenwell (for Mitchell, second half, 4).

Callies—Smith (2), Martin (2), Charlton (8), Graham (6), and Black (2).

The Sons of Canada had no difficulty whatever in beating the Great War Veterans by a score of 44 to 10. The following were the players:

Sons of Canada—Scott, Menzies (4), Shakespeare (6), C. Blythe (23), Anderson (8), W. Blythe (second half for Scott).

G. W. V. A.—Kelly, Davies, Currie (6), Campbell, Brown (4), Westwood, for Kelly, second half.

The Man in the Moon SAYS:

THAT in Winnipeg some of the street cars bear placards with the legend "Go to Church" and others have the words "Safety First."

THAT some people can't help being crazy. They are bred that way.

THAT a man named Cheek is running on the Conservative ticket at Duncan. The name of the Prince Rupert Cons. cand. is For-lorn Hope.

THAT any prisoners who so wished walked away yesterday morning, but two preferred the hospitality of Chief Vickers.

THAT "now you're in and now you're out" seems to be a pretty game played by prisoners here.

THAT what happened to the banner with the strange device?

THAT people are remarking on the bad augury for Newtonism in the banner coming down almost as soon as it was set up.

KETCHIKAN MEN ARE SHOT AT FOR DEER

Bullet Punctured Clothing of One and Burned Skin as it Passed

KETCHIKAN, Nov. 17.—The first near hunting tragedy of the season in Southeastern Alaska occurred on Sunday when P. F. Snow of Ketchikan had his clothing punctured and the skin on his left leg burned by a bullet, fired by a man who had mistaken Snow for a deer.

In company with J. C. Shawyer and the latter's son Chester, Mr. Snow left Ketchikan on the gas boat Keetla. The party went to Eagle Island, north of here and were on the trail of three deer.

They heard a low whistling sound similar to that caused when a blade of grass is held between the fingers and blown on. They thought it was caused by the movement of the branches of a tree. It was not like the deer call, which is made in somewhat the same way.

Suddenly a shot rang out and Chester Shawyer let out a yell to the others, asking what they were up to. He dropped to the ground as he yelled. When the others came up to him he pointed to a tree nearby where a bullet had struck.

Through Trousers

A few seconds later another shot was fired. This time Snow was the target. He was facing the direction from which the bullet came. It passed between his legs as he was taking a step. His right trouser leg was cut in two places, but the bullet did not touch the skin. It then cut through his left trouser leg, burning the skin in passing. His underwear was also cut in three places.

The three hunters lost no time in getting under cover, after which they located the man who fired the shots. He was described as being a very large man, dirty in appearance and with bloodshot eyes. They did not ask his name. He said that he had given the "deer call" and as he was not answered he concluded that the moving objects he had seen were deer. Asked if he knew there were three real deer in the vicinity he said he did not. He claimed to have a gas boat in one of the bays on the island.

Mr. Shawyer said that a member of a hunting party he had taken to Eagle Island a few weeks ago also reported he had been shot at.

REFRIGERATORS ARE ABOUT USED UP NOW

Big Shipments East the Past Few Days Have Taken All Accommodation.

The big shipments of halibut east resulting from the large catches recently marketed have just about cleaned up all the spare refrigerator cars in the yards. Yesterday at the Fish Exchange the fish were selling at a small figure, so the Kodiak, 60,000 pounds, Sentinel, 28,000 pounds, and the Fisher, 25,000 cleared for Seattle in the hope of getting a better price.

The following boats sold here: Polar, 70,000 pounds to the Canadian Fish and Cold Storage Co. at 12 1/2 c and 6c.

Albatross, 23,000 pounds sold to the Pacific Fisheries at 13c and 6c.

Clara N., 2,000 pounds sold to the Royal Fish Co. at 13c and 8.5c.

The Andrew Kelly arrived with 80,000 pounds for the Canadian Fish and Cold Storage Co.
