HILL RESIGNS FROM POLICE COMMISSION

Will Not Remain on Board Because no Prosecutions for Raffles.

"I am through and wish to resign. I will send the resignation into the mayor." These were the final words of Police Commissioner Hill at the special meeting of the police commission held last evening to go into the matter of the $100 raffle conducted by the Catholic Church at the recent bazaar. At the previous meeting of the commission Mr. Hill said that he would have action instituted against the church for this illegal proceeding or quit in the attempt.

Since the matter came up Commissioner Myhill-Jones has been opposed to prosecution on the grounds that the church did not have sufficient notice of the illegality of the affair. The matter was laid over for a week to allow the mayor to look into it and arrive at a decision. Last evening Mayor McClymont stated that while he did not agree with Commissioner Jones that notice should be given, he would not, however, be a party to the prosecution of any religious, charitable or patriotic institution. He had even heard that the $100 had not been paid over. This did not seem to be generally accepted, however.

There was about an hour's discussion on the question, each commissioner remaining firm on his stand. Commissioner Hill stated at the end of the meeting that his resignation would come into effect at once.

LISTENING IN ON LOCAL TELEPHONES

Things that Might have been Heard by the Girls at Central if They Chose

The other day the Man in the Moon made some remarks about what might be heard over the telephone by the hello girls if they happened to be listening in at the time. Here is a sample:

Man takes down receiver and listens three seconds with evident impatience.

"Number, please?"
"Yes, about time. Give me 209."

"Hello."
"Hello. Is that the Independent Committee Rooms everybody welcome."

"Yes, this is the Newton independent rooms."
"Is Sam there?"

"You mean Seville Martineau Newton. No, he is up at Cedarvale gathering in those sixteen independent voters."

"Oh, cut the Seville stuff. He's the people's candidate, isn't he?
Independent too, ay?"

"Yes, that's Mr. Newton exactly."

"What people?"
"What do you mean, what people?"

"What people does Seville Martineau represent? Was he nominated at a mass meeting or anything or in the quiet seclusion of his little room upstairs?"

"Don't be blasphemous. Mr.
Newton doesn't need a mass meeting or a convention. In fact he couldn't get one if he wanted it. It was just C. O. Howe and one or two of us that induced him to allow himself to be nominated on behalf of the great mass of the people whom he hopes to represent. I tell you—"

"Number, please?"

"WHAT'S YOUR HUSBAND DOING?" AT THE EMPRESS

"What's Your Husband Doing?" is described as a rollicking comedy about young husbands and wives and a grand mix-up at a lively roadhouse. It is at the Empress Theatre tonight.

Miss May has the role of Beatrice Ridley, newly married and suspicious of the notes which her husband gets every morning from "Honeysuckle Inn." She consults John Widgast, a lawyer, and they resolve to investigate. In the meantime, the wives of Widgast and Pidgeon, his partner, have become jealous of the divorce business which their spouses find necessary to talk over with pretty co-respondents and other designing creatures.

BERT KERGIN SURE TO WIN

Has Lived in North Long Time and has Wide Experience

WILL VISIT EVERYONE
SOON AS ELECTED

ANYOX, Nov. 17.—Although the campaign is quite young, it is generally conceded here that Bert Kergin will win. He is a Liberal and a strong supporter and admirer of Premier Oliver and that means a great deal when Oliver is the only strong, clean leader in sight. Irrespective of party, however, he will have a large majority on his personality.

H. F. Kergin, better known throughout the north as "Bert," has lived in the north since he was 21 years of age. He was in Stewart for a number of years about the time of the 1910 boom.
He has worked as a freighter, has worked underground in the mines and later has operated the gas boat Wake between this town and Aibre Arm. As a result he is known to everyone and the people look on him as one of themselves.
He knows the country and its conditions and requirements better than any other.

Is Enthusiastic
Campaign Secretary J. W. Es-plin with headquarters at Anyox is enthusiastic over the prospects.
He says that everyone is waiting Bert to visit them before the election, but he will not be able to go everywhere, as the time is short.
As soon as he is elected, however, he will make a tour of the country and get in touch with the needs of the people so that he may be able to properly represent them.

There is an energetic committee of Liberals at Anyox with Fred Brown as secretary, who are boosting persistently for their candidate and say they are sure he will easily make the grade well ahead of any of the others.

The Friendly
Smoke

THERE is something mighty comforting and satisfying about "OLD CHUM" Tobacco; a sort of soothing restfulness that pipe smokers have come to associate with this friendly smoke.

"OLD CHUM" is an old, old chum with all pipe smokers.

It has the perfect tobacco taste—the mellow richness—and men know that they can be chummy with "OLD CHUM" all day long and that the "good night pipeful" will be as sweet and cool as the one enjoyed just after breakfast.

For years and years "OLD CHUM" has been Canada's favourite pipe tobacco and today is more popular than ever.

Have Plenty of Music in your Home this Winter

There's nothing equal to Music for making the long, cold evenings of winter pass by pleasantly.

How the kiddies love music! They revel in it.

Where there's plenty of life and melody the young people want to stay home.

And what an unfailing source of joy Music is to the older folks, whether they participate by playing an instrument or merely sit back and listen to the sweet strains produced by others in the family.

The piano, the player, the phonograph, the violin, the banjo, ukelele, flute, etc.—all are good.

All the instruments of modern melody offer you their services. See them and select from them at your nearest music store.
