CONFIDENCE IN HIS MAN NOT VERY STRONG

Jack Sinclair, Second of Captain Formby, Refused 1 to 4 Odds This Morning.

Jack Sinclair, second of Capt. Charles B. Formby as Conservative nominee for the December election, refused to stake any money on his man this morning.

It happened that Harry Lipsett was at the Fish Exchange today and the usual argument commenced. Harry was strong for Peltullo and Jack seemed strong for Formby.

"I'll bet you fifty dollars to twelve and a half that Peltullo is elected here," said Harry.

Jack hummed and hawed around for a while, scratched his head when he saw he was up against the goods, and like a canny Scot used his common sense and it dawned upon him that he could use that twelve and a half better than Harry so he refused.

"Well, then I'll just bet you the same odds that the Oliver Government is sustained."

Being a staunch Tory Jack couldn't let it go, even if it was a bad proposition. He reluctantly drew forth the twelve and a half and handed it to Jimmie Lee who also holds the Lipsett fifty.

So Bowser got a backer where Formby fell down. And Harry Lipsett says he'll spend the twelve and a half, too.

HEALTH OFFICIALS

WARN THE PUBLIC

With the memory of the epidemics which have swept the continent the past three years, health officials are everywhere advising the public to treat any case of cold, however slight, promptly. They point out that neglect, even of a simple cold, is liable to lead to dangerous forms of disease, many of which are considered contagious.

Beat this warning in mind and keep a box of Grip-Fix in the house. As soon as the first signs of a cold appear start taking the remedy. It works quickly and, if taken promptly, will relieve even a bad cold in a single night.
