ANGLICAN CHURCH HAD FINE SERVICE

Choir Has Been Asked to Repeat
Program Which Was Highly Successful.

The services at the Church of England on Christmas Day were of a very special character. The music was one of the chief features and the choir succeeded in giving decided pleasure to the congregations present.

After a shortened form of evening prayer, Sunday night's service was made up of anthems, solos and carols which were all splendidly rendered. The soloists were Miss A. Clothier, J. E. Devey and Will Edmunds, and the quartette made up of Mrs. Ackroyd, Mrs. Pattinson, J. E. Davey and W. H. Melliar. The organist, J. Austin, rendered splendid service and there is much credit due Mr. Melliar, the choir leader, for the success of the musical part of the services. The choir has been asked to repeat the program next Sunday evening.

SEAL COVE SUNDAY SCHOOL CHRISTMAS

The Christmas spirit thoroughly prevailed at Seal Cove last week at the annual gathering of the children of the Church of England Sunday school, when a bountifully laden Christmas tree was the centre of attraction. The proceedings were of the nature of a jolly Christmas party, the youngsters having a joyful time, each being presented with a toy by Santa Claus, through Canon Rix, who seemed as happy and delighted as any one of the children. The grown ups, especially Mrs. Blance, who did so much to make the affair a success, may well be pleased with the result of their efforts.

Raymond A. Fisher returned on the Prince John yesterday from Vancouver where he is attending university to spend the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Fisher, Fourth Avenue East.

WAR VETERANS HAD DINNER AT CENTRAL

Sumptuous Feast Provided on Christmas Day.

Amongst the many pleasant social functions taking place on Christmas Day, to celebrate the joyous season, one of the most successful was the dinner at the Central Hotel given by the G.W.V.A. to the returned soldiers in the city.

As is usual with any event of that character brought off at the Central Hotel, the menu, decorations and general tout ensemble of the whole affair was most excellent. About fifty veterans sat down at seven o'clock to a truly sumptuous dinner, and did full justice to the historic Christmas fare of turkey, plum pudding, and mince pie. Toasts were drunk, speeches were made and songs were sung, and a general jollification took place. Ray Macdonald was in the chair, President Kelly, Capt. Formby and A. H. Wilson gave the addresses, whilst the musical end was attended to by Messrs. Sloan, M. O'Donovan and Paddy Martin.

Before breaking up shortly after ten, the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Black, were warmly praised for the excellent dinner provided, and best wishes expressed for their happiness for Christmas and the coming New Year.

Mrs. Peter Stephen sailed on the Prince John last evening for Vancouver.

Dr. and Mrs. H. C. Davis, of Stewart, returned north on the Prince Albert last night after having spent a few days in the city.
