nd for Bill Vance .

and for Harold Whalen, cappy new truck with the bel of calendars for Bill store leaving, Santa should Harvey . . . a box of buns Mary and Tom Brown er office key for Phil Ray an automatic shelf-loader Harry, Bill and Al Sheardown at Art's speeches . . . make Stone beam if he guaranharbor for inspiration houses to Orme Stuart, Willa

Bob Moore, Hugh MacKend Norman Bellis

ato clip Inspector Taylor's whis summer . . . a ticket to stand series for Bill Lambic tords for Vince Daly sine judge for Bill Dyer and I there's still amything left Foulter, Ernie Paulding and a Taylor might get some my Black, a pass to the Bea Forward and a Armstrong, more people

ary he could leave a few odds a ends for George Dawes or moose in the woods for

Jack Burgess . a constructive George Mitchell stampede for Eva Harold Thom, Mrs

ball might help Geddes ge hold his average that spells Annette correctly throughout are come books, Charbonneau would be records of "It's In The for Bert Fraser and Rusty a car of a different for Peter Montchal so he'll where to put his Christparcels . . . lots of sunny for Gus and Edie Crockart cean Falls . . . and if Santa anything left . . . he would very high if he left Sandy aby-sitter so he could go out New Year's Eve.

MERRY CHRISTMAS EVERYONE.

Hundreds of Kiddies .. With Sandy Receive Kinsmen Gift

A double Christmas party—one last night and tivity in the Civic Centre over of all city churches, has increas-buted by a jolly, rollicking Santa ties to end the first nalf of the could not have been able to cope one yesterday afternoon-was staged by the Kinsmen Club of Prince Rupert in their annual program ed one of the busiest years of est yet. of cheer for the kiddies.

Arrangements have been com-cluding a Christmas tree, and said this morning there are NO more tickets available. More than 500 tickets have been sold.

the union, is in charge of refreshments, Lloyd McFadden is handling the catering. A. Van and Nick Gervich and Jack

Woods will hold the spotlight as

A trophy, donated by W. C. R.

lumbia Cellulose plant on Watson Island, will be awarded the readers

• SUPER-VALU will be open

all day Saturday at regular plewhaite on CFPR, 8 p.m. Fri-

Wallace's Department Store will close as usual Dec. 25 and 26, and will also be closed all

Snowball Frolic; Jan. 6-Basket-

• The members of the Women's Co-ordinating Council wish to thank the following for do-

Canada Packers, Locker Plant,

Ormes Drugs, Mrt A. Rivett, Mr.

M. M. Stephens, Carpenters' Union, LO.O.F., he Deep Sea

Fishermen's Union, and all othday Saturday, Dec. 27.

Pat O'Neil, new president of Armouries on Friday night.

Six of the Kinsmen acted as aides to Santa Claus when they 500 Tickets descended on Miller Bay Hosfor the 71 children confined to Sold For Pulp their beds as patients.

Santa in full regalia distrib- Union Dance uted the individually wrapped gifts from a huge bag in separate wards where he was met pleted for the first annual Boxwith whoops and shouts of glee. ing Day Ball sponsored by the One little boy was so happy Pulp Mill Union, local 708, at the Gifts included coloring books, The co-ordinator and man in crayons, dolls and toys for the charge of arrangements, Peter smaller ones and games and Lister, has everything ready, in-

More than an nour was spent by Santa and his henchmen as they talked to each of the little patients, helped them open their gifts and in some cases showed them how to play the games.

Meer is in charge of the floor Each ward was highly decorated in Christmas theme with decked out in artistic taste.

While most of the boys quick-Jones, mill manager at the Coly opened their gifts, many of the little girls put away their parcels with a shy "thank you, winner of the wastzing contest, Santa," to open them Christmas

Members of the party included Mickey Fudger, Vince Dodd. Curly Barber, Carl Sauer, Gordon Horne and Bill Dyer-and

In the afternoon, 1,000 chil- hours dren, laughed, cheered and sang Kinsmen's annual Christmas theatre after sitting through a series of cartoons and a Tarzan e Events to be held by the thriller-a free show, also sup- Y.P.E.A. Club of Port Simpson. plied by the Kinsmen through Dec. 28-Moonlight Dance; Dec. the courtesy of Harry Black, 30-Balloon Dance; Jan. 5theatre manager.

Before the picture show be- ball, Merchants of Metlakatla. gan, however, a real-life Santa Alaska, vs. Y.P.E.A. Claus in red parka and flowing nations: Super-Valu, Sunrise Santa, in turn, led the sing-Grocery, Burns Co., Swift Co., ing accompanied on the piano by John Currie as a thousand voices joined in carols and popular Christmas tunes.

The moon completes a circuit ers who helped make the around the earth in an average Christmas Party and Banquet ength of 27 days, seven hours for the Over-70 Club such a suc-

Busy Year Ending

Roller Skating Takes Limelight the Centre, including the handient, lails and Ben Svendsen, craft classes of all age groups, Roly Miles, Jack McIntosh and music appreciation class and Dennis Kerrignan were all ento 700 participants.

The annual event led by choir master of ceremonies.

All the best-known carols were Outstanding among seasonal joined in heartily by the particievents were the Christmas parties pating audience and special sefor the children and the Carol lections by the choir and indisinging session which drew close vidual groups drew much favorable comment, F. E. Anfield was

GREAT ELKS VARIETY SHOW

Sunday Dec. 28, 9.00 p.m.

at the

CAPITOL THEATRE

PHONE 99 FOR RESERVATIONS

Tickets will be delivered

BANDS - SINGING - COMEDY - MUSICALS

the holiday season after many ed in popularity each year. This pre-Christmas events highlight- year's attendance was the larg-

All other activity groups in Fred Jones, manager, Irene Par-music appreciation class and Dennis Kerrignan were all en-Roller-skating is the main ac- a 60-voice representative choir 175 bags of treats were distri- others had their individual par- thusiastic workers, but say they

Civic Centre staff members help of the many volunteers.

with all the work without the

Prince Rupert Daily News

Wednesday, December 24, 1952

PULP MILL UNION (708)

First Annual

BOXING DAY BALL

No Tickets Will Be Sold at the Door

WALTZ COMPETITION FOR TROPHY WILL START AT 11:30 P.M.

> 9:30 - 2:00 a.m. Dancing

CHIC YOUNG

