WHEN IS A TOWER CALLED A HOIST?

School Board is Doubtful as to Whether Cost of Structure at Hays Cove Should be Paid.

The definition of a hoist and whether that big structure at the Hays Cove School would properly be called a hoist in the usage of the trade, was a point that caused considerable discussion at the meeting of the School Board last evening. This arose over the application of S. P. McMordie, contractor, for a payment of $431.90 for the erection of the structure. At the last meeting of the board it was decided to withhold payment of this and last night Col. McMordie again made application for the payment.

J. C. McLennan moved in favor of paying it but Mrs. Kirkpatrick and Fred Shaw wanted further time to consider the point so the matter was laid over.

Under the terms of Col. McMordie's contract he is required to supply the hoist in the erection of the new school.
