

THE CHIEF CHARM OF LOVELY WOMAN

Soft, Clear, Smooth Skin Comes With The Use Of "FRUIT-A-TIVES".

NORAH WATSON
86 Drayton Ave., Toronto.
Nov. 10th, 1915.

A beautiful complexion is a handsome woman's chief glory and the envy of her less fortunate rivals. Yet a soft, clear skin—glowing with health—is only the natural result of pure blood.

"I was troubled for a considerable time with a very unpleasant, disfiguring rash, which covered my face and for which I used applications and remedies without relief. After using 'Fruit-a-tives' for one week, the rash is completely gone. I am deeply thankful for the relief and in the future, I will not be without 'Fruit-a-tives'."

NORAH WATSON.

Box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c. At dealers or sent postpaid on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

WATER NOTICE

USE AND STORAGE

TAKE NOTICE that Magnus P. Olsen, whose address is Alice Arm, B. C., will apply for a licence to take and use 20 cubic feet per second and to store 600 acre-feet of water out of Clearwater Creek which flows southwesterly and drains into the Kitsuik River about 27 miles from the head of the Inlet of Alice Arm.

The storage-dam will be located at the westerly outlet of Clearwater Lake. The capacity of the reservoir to be created is about 600 acre-feet, and it will flood about 50 acres of land. The water will be diverted from the stream at a point about at the dam, and will be used for power for mining purposes upon the mine described as the Matilda, Fox, Monarch and other mineral claims, located on Kitsuik Mountain.

This notice was posted on the ground on the 16th day of May, 1917.

A copy of this notice and an application pursuant thereto and to the "Water Act, 1914," will be filed in the office of the water recorder at Prince Rupert, B. C. Objections to the application may be filed with the said Water Recorder or with the Comptroller of Water Rights, Parliament Buildings Victoria, B. C., within thirty days after the first appearance of this notice in a local newspaper.

M. P. OLSEN, Applicant.

The date of the first publication of this notice is June 2nd, 1917.

THESE RUMORS RE COALITION

against the rest of Canada finds a welcome from this precious pair. It helps them in their struggle to wrest Quebec from Sir Wilfrid Laurier, who has been a life-long champion of union and harmony.

Naturally Bourassa and Lavergne are opposed to any arrangement that would cut off their supplies or stop their mouths. They were quick enough to start demonstrating, may, indeed, have done so on orders from Ottawa, but they would have demonstrated anyway. It is their bread and butter. As matters stand they are at liberty to do and say what they please. The Government which now seeks to put selective conscription into force is the same crowd that went to bed with Bourassa and Lavergne in 1914, and this is what comes of it.

The Borden Government is, at this moment spending something over a million dollars a day and naturally the people who handle the patronage of this vast sum are unwilling to surrender their prerogatives to a coalition government which would handle all this money on a strictly non-partisan basis. The patronage dispensers naturally set up a great howl, as did also the various powers bequeathed the throne, the kings in the wings, so to speak—the Bacon, Egg, Meat, Sugar, Wheat and other Kings—who don't want the Borden Government to disappear before they have looted the last dollar out of the crisis. Rumor has it that they soon showed the Premier how little a premier is his own man when he has no backbone.

Another section of the Conservative party was actuated by a sense of shame. "What right," they asked, "have we to invite the Liberals into a coalition now at the far end of the hunt? Why didn't we do it at the start and share the responsibilities together? It's sheer nerve, now that we're away in the hole, to ask them to jump in with us." And there may be something in that.

A point which has not escaped observers is that at all the anti-conscription meetings banners have appeared having the legend, "We want cheaper food." If the government wants a hint as to the proper policy these banners proclaim it aloud. The sentiment is placarded everywhere so that he who runs may read—food first, men afterwards. The government has got off with the wrong foot.

The feeling against conscription is not confined to Quebec. It is to be found everywhere through Canada. It is strongest among the labor organizations, on which it would bear hardest. It is not so much a feeling against conscription as a feeling of anger and resentment against a government that has the nerve to commandeer life without first commandeering the means of living. So far the food proposals of the government are a pure farce. Such of them as have been printed help the consumer not a jot and hurt the food manipulator not a tittle. Indeed with one cold storage king, and him the greatest of all—in their very midst, one understands how his tribe is the last the Borden Government wants to hurt.

The workingman simply will not march away to war and leave his loved ones behind to be looted by the food pirates. To sweeten the country toward conscription, the food problem should have been settled first.

Meanwhile Mr. J. W. Flavelle by his various activities in feeding the army is said to be netting a million dollars every two weeks.

If the war goes on long enough he will be in the Rockefeller class. —H. F. Gadsby.

You Can Make Excellent Cake With Fewer Eggs

Just use an additional quantity of Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder, about a teaspoon, in place of each egg omitted.

This applies equally well to nearly all baked foods. Try the following recipe according to the new way:

CREAM LAYER CAKE

Old Way

1 cup sugar
1/2 cup milk
2 cups flour
2 teaspoons Dr. Price's Baking Powder
3 eggs
1/2 cup shortening
1 teaspoon flavoring

New Way

1 cup sugar
1 cup milk
2 cups flour
4 teaspoons Dr. Price's Baking Powder
1 egg
2 tablespoons shortening
1 teaspoon flavoring

Makes 1 Large 2-Layer Cake

DIRECTIONS—Cream the sugar and shortening together, then mix in the egg. After sifting the flour and Dr. Price's Baking Powder together, two or three times, add it all to the mixture. Gradually add the milk and beat with spoon until you have a smooth pour batter. Add the flavoring. Pour into greased layer cake tins and bake in a moderately hot oven for twenty minutes. This cake is best baked in two layers. Put together with cream filling and spread with white icing.

Are You an Asset to Canada— or are You a Liability?

ARE you helping to win the War? Or could Canada put up a better fight without you?

Are you working—saving—paying—to back up the men at the front? Or are you loafing—wasting—spending on selfish indulgences the money that should be loaned to the Nation?

Man-power is at a premium! The time and strength of every man in Canada should be devoted wholeheartedly to really useful work—work that will help, directly or indirectly, in the Struggle.

Food is short the world over! Every housewife in Canada should devote herself earnestly to the problem of conserving it—of feeding our people well, yet economically and without waste.

Everyone should save—and lend the savings to the nation!

Canada needs every dollar you can invest in War Savings Certificates, and for every $21.50 you loan now, she will repay you $25.00 at the end of three years—or you can get your money back at any time. Certificates are issued in denominations of $25, $50 and $100, which may be purchased at $21.50, $43 and $86 respectively, at any Bank or Money Order Post Office.
