WESTHOLME THEATRE

"The Pretenders," the great Metro photoplay, will be shown again tonight at the Westholme Theatre. This is a great play. It is certainly one of the most interesting and pleasant that has been shown for a long time. For embarrassing situations and laughable incidents, the whole five acts are full of them. The honest laughter evoked last night was loud and long. The play is one that will appeal to most folks. The incidents emphasized are those that occur in almost every home. That little argument about wiping the dishes, for instance, which is a sore point with some people. Everyone can enjoy this play, and go away feeling the better for having seen it.

A fine comedy is also shown, and the orchestral selections are very apt.

Province of British ColumbiaDEPARTMENT OF LANDS*NOTICE

Re Overdue Payments on Applications to Purchase Crown Lands in British Columbia.

NOTICE is hereby given that, under the provisions of the "Soldiers' Homestead Act" any person who did not apply under the "Soldiers' Homestead Act, 1916," to complete his application to purchase, either by payment in full or by the selection of a proportionate allotment, may, by proving his interest and paying up in full the balance of the purchase price and taxes before the 31st December, 1917, obtain a Crown Grant if proof satisfactory to the Minister of Lands is furnished that such person is suffering injury through absence of notice or otherwise.

And further that the interest in uncompleted applications to purchase held by any person on Active Service may be protected by notification to the Lands Department of the fact that such person is on Active Service and by the filing of proof of the interest of such person.

Further information will be furnished on request to the Deputy Minister of Lands, Victoria, B. C.

Publication of this notice without authority will not be paid for. Tu, Sep. 18

NOTICE TO CREDITORS

Yesterday, the salt lake proved to be a place of great attraction to the people of the city. There was a big crowd across the harbor, and the swimming was fine.

Bessie Casey, or anyone knowing of her whereabouts, please notify Miss Katherine Cohen, 806 21st Avenue, Seattle; who is anxious to hear from her. 163

The arc lamps presently decorating the streets are being replaced one by one by Nitro-tungsten lamps. These are said to give a better light, without so much flickering.

Good progress is being made with the extension of the Albert & McCaffery wharf. The pile-driver is fast making a different appearance to the old wharf, and when completed, the new wharf should be a good one.

Two scows loaded with material for the construction of the new sawmill at Seal Cove are on their way north and may be expected any time now. The levelling of the site is just about completed, and building operations will be started immediately on the arrival of the lumber.

A splendid lecture was delivered last night in the Presbyterian Church Hall by the Rev. Knox Wright, secretary of the B. C. Bible Society. The subject matter of the lecture dealt with South Africa and colored views were shown of the gold and diamond mines, the falls, buildings and natives of the country and their language.

In the final of the St. Andrew's Society's bottle pool competition in the club rooms last night, Harvey Fraser beat James Irvine. In the preliminary rounds, Harvey beat F. G. Steen and W. H. W. Murray, while James Irvine's victims were J. H. McMillan and S. D. Macdonald. The winner carried off the prize presented by Mr. F. G. Steen.

The sale of home-cooking held by the ladies of Seal Cove yesterday in aid of the French Red Cross realized the sum of $38.35. A crocheted yoke was won by Mrs. Freeman, tea-cosy by Mrs. G. M. Brown, sack of flour by Mr. R. Oberg, and tidies by Mrs. McKenzie. On Saturday, an ice cream and candy sale for the children will be given by Mrs. R. Moplador.

The twenty-five-cent strawberry tea held in the Methodist Church parlors yesterday was a splendid affair. Lots of rich, red, ripe strawberries—lots of them—suited a day like yesterday particularly well. A musical accompaniment was provided, which capped the event. The sum of over $39 was realized, which will be applied towards the church funds.

Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Belway, of Baranoff Island, Alaska, are in the city on a visit.

Tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock sharp, the St. Andrew's Society will hold their semi-annual meeting in their rooms on Second Ave. The business will be the election of officers for the coming season. A musical programme will be given after the business is transacted. Every member is requested to attend. The musical evenings given by the St. Andrew's boys is always something to look forward to and their evenings are among the most pleasant functions going.

The drawing for the I'll Away raffle was held on July 5th, and the boat goes to I. Alcock, an officer of the D. G. S. Galiano. The ticket was held by his son, who bought it with his own money. He will sell the boat and put the money in the bank to educate him to enter the Royal Navy. Two hundred and seventy-eight dollars was collected through the Government Office, Prince Rupert, for this raffle, fifty per cent of which amount will be turned over to the local branch of the Red Cross Society.
