

A Real Investment!

Do not confuse real estate INVESTMENTS with speculations. We have all seen the error of too much speculation. But real INVESTMENTS in productive real estate are an entirely different matter. Here is a chance to INVEST in an improved property that is paying 10 per cent. net per annum, on the price asked for it.

This INVESTMENT consists of a lot, five-room house with bath, and a good two-room cabin on the rear of the lot. It is 400 yards from the City Hall. Now rented for $19 per month. INVEST your savings in this property and get 10 per cent on them instead of the savings bank 3 per cent. Price, $1,200. Terms. DO IT NOW.

The case against Wm. Thornton was dismissed in the police court this morning. He was charged with "rolling" a man in the Windsor Hotel.

The reading of reports from the city treasurer and the superintendent of utilities regarding the capital outlay incurred in the moving of the telephone department to the city hall incurred some criticism at the council meeting last night. Ald. McClymont found that the payroll for the light department was $950. This utility could not afford such a sum, and if it were continued, he thought that it would put it in the hole. Aldermen Montgomery, McRae, and Dybhavn also spoke and the reports were held over for another week.

RUMORS OF COALITION STILL RIFE IN OTTAWA

Ottawa, July 16.—The Government has put a sting in the tail of its manhood conscription bill when the solicitor-general moved an extra clause containing three sections and a number of subsections to the measure. This clause is an answer to the threats of defiance against the measure which have been voiced in the press and public throughout the Dominion, and especially in Quebec, since the announcement of conscription was made. It provides for heavy penalties, including fines, and imprisonment, as punishment for those who by word or action strive to incite against the enforcement of the act when it becomes law, and the suppression of newspapers which write articles in that tenor.

The reading of the amendment by the solicitor-general elicited from Sir Wilfrid Laurier the remark: "The government might just as well put martial law into force at once." It is obvious that the amendment is designed largely to cope with the Quebec attitude, though a reading of the clause might lead to the belief that it will affect also the attitude of labor as threatened by prominent members of the Trades and Labor Congress.

May Not Exempt Clergy.

The committee got once through the bill and went back to the consideration of contentious clauses left over. An interesting feature, however, was the request of the prime minister to leave over that section which exempts clergy from provisions of the act. Sir Sam Hughes a few days ago raised objections to this exemption, and Mr. Turiff, of Assiniboia, did likewise.

Should this exemption be struck out, it is obvious that young priests of Quebec, sworn to celibacy, will be largely affected by the bill.

Union is Possible.

Meanwhile the outer parliament which makes the corridors its habitat is not idle. Strong rumors have again been revived of a coalition or union. Conservative Liberals are wearing thoughtful faces. In this connection there is an interesting article in The Citizen in which what purports to be an inside view of the political situation is given. The writer predicts that union government will come.

The article also says that Sir Robert Borden has intimated a readiness to retire from the premiership if that will help forward the union movement.

If union comes, it will not be between the two leaders, that much is certain. It will come, if it comes at all, from below upwards. The end of the week may bring interesting and momentous developments in this, the most interesting and momentous political situation since confederation.
