To celebrate the return of Pte. Alex Gray to the city, a little dance was given in the old Majestic Theatre last night. The interior of the building has been remodelled, and many took advantage of the newly waxed floor last evening. Dancing was kept up until the early hours this morning and all enjoyed the affair hugely.

WESTHOLME THEATRE

Tonight there will be shown at the Westholme Opera House two of filmdom's great favorites, Wallace Reid and Anita King, in a play of great quality, entitled "The Golden Setter." These two stars always get a great reception and have won for themselves a high position in the histrionic world. The play is one of the best of its kind, and is of a class that makes a wide appeal. Ham and Bud will also be shown in their usual side-splitting comedy, and a Pathe Gazette will be shown, being some of the latest world events before the eyes of the audience.

Our sale is better than putting money in the bank—Jabour Bros.
