PATRIOTISM AND PROFITS

Recently an appeal was issued to the business men of the United States by President Wilson. This is so applicable to the present state of affairs in Canada that some of the President's words will bear reproducing. He said:

"A just price must, of course be paid for everything the Government buys. By a just price I mean a price which will sustain the industries concerned in a high state of efficiency, provide a living for those who conduct them, enable them to pay good wages, and make possible the expansions of their enterprises which will from time to time become necessary as the stupendous undertakings of this great war develop. We could not wisely or reasonably do less than pay such prices. They are necessary for the maintenance and development of industry, and the maintenance and development of industry are necessary for the great task we have in hand.

"Patriotism leaves profits out of the question. In these days of our supreme trial, when we are sending hundreds of thousands of our young men across the seas to serve a great cause, no true man who stays behind to work for them and sustain them by his labor will ask himself what he is personally going to make out of that labor. No true patriot will permit himself to take toll of their heroism in money or seek to grow rich by the shedding of their blood. He will give as freely and with as unstinted self-sacrifice as they. When they are giving their lives will he not give at least his money?"

"I hear it insisted that more than a just price, more than a price that will sustain our industries, must be paid; that it is necessary to pay very liberal and unusual profits in order to stimulate production; that nothing but pecuniary rewards will do—rewards paid in money and not in the mere liberation of the world.

"I take it for granted that those who argue thus do not stop to think what that means. Do they mean that you must be paid, must be bribed, to make your contribution, a contribution that costs you neither a drop of blood nor a tear, when the whole world is in travail and men everywhere depend upon and call to you to bring them out of bondage and make the world a fit place to live in again amidst peace and justice? Do they mean that you will exact a price, drive a bargain with the men who are enduring the agony of this war on the battlefields, in the trenches, amidst the lurking dangers of the sea, or with the bereaved women and pitiful children, before you will come forward to do your duty and give some part of your life, in easy peaceful fashion, for the things we are fighting for, the things we have pledged our fortunes, our lives, our sacred honor, to vindicate and defend—liberty and justice and fair dealing and the peace of nations?"

This appeal of President Wilson's is one which the great proportion of the people will agree with. But there is another class of people—we have them in Canada and it is also evident from the President's words that they exist across the line—to whom their country's need is their opportunity. Patriotism applies only to them as represented by the four personal pronouns, I, me, my, mine. Business in time of peace is only changed in war time—to them—as an opportunity to make greater gain. And which in Canada has been taken every advantage of.

To this class of people, such an appeal as this will fall on deaf ears. The remedy lies with the State itself. What the profiteers will not give willingly, the State has the power to take.

and thus would make something over $4.55 clear profit per case for sockeye. Pretty fat, when the fishermen got only $1.95 for those same fish. Sockeye sold last year for about $11.00 per case for half pound flats. The cost of canning would thus be about $6.45 per case. It looks as though the bacon hogs are not the only hogs responsible for the high cost of living. It might be well for the high cost of living experts to investigate canned salmon on the Skeena.

In 1915 the canners on the Skeena paid their attached licenses only 12½¢ per sockeye. Is it any wonder that the better class of white fishermen will not compete against this attached slave fishing labor for as long as the majority of the salmon fishermen in District No. 2 bid to the canners the canneries will prefer to pay one-third what the fish is worth and put up two-thirds of a pack, rather than pay all the fish is worth and put up a full pack, and if he can pay one-third what the fish is worth and put up a full pack it is so much more real velvet.

This system of attached licenses is the most contemptible regulation that has ever been imposed in a reputed free country since slavery was abolished and when taken along with the further government regulation pre- (Continued on page three.)

"WATER ACT, 1914."

BEFORE THE BOARD OF INVESTIGATION

In the Matter of all Streams in the Hazelton and Fort Fraser Water Districts.

A MEETING of the Board of Investigation will be held at the Court-house at Hazelton on Monday, the 23rd day of July, 1917, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon.

In the Matter of all Streams in the Prince Rupert Water District.

A meeting of the Board of Investigation will be held at the Court-house at Prince Rupert on Wednesday, the 25th day of July, 1917, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon.

At these meetings all statements of claim to water privileges under Acts passed before the 12th day of March, 1909, on any of these streams, all objections thereto, and the plans prepared for the use of the said Board, will then be open for inspection.

All persons interested are entitled to examine these, and to file objections thereto in writing if they deem fit.

Objections will be heard forthwith if the party objected to has received sufficient notice of the objection.

The Board at the said meetings will hear the claimants, will determine the quantity of water which may be used under each record and the further works which are necessary for such use, and will set dates for the filing of plans of such works and for the commencement and completion of such works.

And whereas there may be persons who, before the 12th day of March, 1909, were holders of water records on the said streams and yet have not filed statements of their claims with the Board of Investigation, such persons are required to file, on or before the 15th day of July, 1917, a statement, as required by section 294 of the "Water Act, 1914." The forms (No. 50 for irrigation and No. 51 for other purposes) may be obtained from any Government Agent in the Province.

The claims of riparian proprietors who have filed, as required by section 6 of the "Water Act, 1914," statements of claim to waters of any of the said streams will be heard at the same times and places.

Dated at Victoria, B. C., this 7th day of June, 1917.

For the Board of Investigation,
J. F. ARMSTRONG,
Chairman.

Sunlight Soap

WOMEN who want to be economical should use SUNLIGHT SOAP freely in the house. First, because it is all pure soap—there are no cheap "fillers" so it goes farther and you get more real soap for the money. Second, because clothes last longer when washed with SUNLIGHT. Isn't this important? There are no injurious chemicals to harm the finest cloths—$5,000 guarantee of this.
