WHITEWASH

The Minister of Public Works is again occupying his seat in the cabinet. The Hon. Robert Rogers has been discharged by the Macleod-Tellier Commission from the findings of the report made by Mr. Justice Galt, and, according to this commission, he has now not a stain on his character. The little comedy has been played and the Government is satisfied. Whether the people of Canada will remain satisfied will be shown in the immediate future.

The effect of this latest whitewashing report from the special commission will be felt all over Canada. From the past record of the person most chiefly concerned, he would be astute enough to expect just such a report, and the general public could hardly, under the circumstances expect much else either. So nobody has been disappointed.

Public opinion of this matter is well reflected in one of our southern contemporaries. It writes as follows:

When the House of Commons rose at the dinner hour last evening the minister of justice fabled the report of the Macleod-Tellier royal commission appointed at the request of Hon. Robert Rogers to review the findings of Mr. Justice Galt of Winnipeg in connection with the enquiry into the construction of the Manitoba agricultural college. After a long and tedious debate, and hours of weary waiting the average member's appetite is keyed up to a high state of efficiency and he is perhaps less particular about what he swallows than at any other time.

The report not only whitewashes the minister of public works, but surrounds everything that occurred during his official connection with the Roblin government with an air of sanctity that attaches to few in the ranks of the very righteous.

We are not taken by surprise nor are the public. From the moment when Sir Robert Borden turned over Mr. Justice Galt's findings, not to a court, not even to a committee of parliament, but to two gentlemen evidently hand-picked for the occasion, there has not been the feeblest expression of doubt as to what the result would be. And the general expectation has been amply justified. Mr. Rogers, whose public life has long been a byword and reproach, and whose presence is scarcely tolerated in a Manitoba constituency, is painted in such pure and noble lines that even the lilies of the field must feel their inferiority in his presence. Mr. Rogers will have some difficulty in recognizing himself in the sublime and statuesque figure which these gentlemen have placed on the canvas. He will have little to say on the subject of the Macleod-Tellier report. He will want to forget it.

The report is of little importance in itself. But as a further proof of the complete ascendancy which this soldier of fortune has always exercised over his weak and shambling leader it has great significance. If Sir Robert Borden felt it necessary that the reputation of his minister of public works was so in need of clarifying and deodorizing that extraordinary means had to be adopted for the purpose, why did he take him by the hand in his besmirched condition and carry him across the seas to represent Canada in the highest councils of the empire, and at the King's table? A greater indecency was never put upon the Canadian people unless it be the means which have been employed to rehabilitate the character and reputation of a man who has been selected to be shown over Great Britain and Europe as "le chevalier sans peur et sans reproche."

The remarkable Macleod-Tellier report has come at a time when it will help the great western convention at Winnipeg to place a proper estimate on Sir Robert Borden as the guardian of Canada's honor, and will not be overlooked.

"The Poor Man's Potato" has become the rich man's luxury. Whether at three dollars a bushel, or twenty-five cents a bushel, potatoes are not a complete food. Two or three Shredded Wheat Biscuits with milk furnish more real, body-building nutriment than a meal of potatoes or meat, are much more easily digested and cost much less. Shredded Wheat is 100 per cent. whole wheat, nothing added and nothing taken away—gives mental vim and physical vigor for the hot days. Delicious for breakfast, or any meal, with sliced bananas, berries or other fruits, and milk. Made in Canada.

THE UNITED STATES WILL NATION EUROPE

Washington, July 30.—A plan for rationing the northern European neutral countries was put before President Wilson by the exports council.

A general policy of supplying America first, the allies second and the neutrals last, was announced by the president in his proclamation putting the export control into operation, but no specific policy has been adopted. At present, no licenses are issued for shipments of goods to the northern neutrals. A large number of Scandinavian ships, loaded with foodstuffs are awaiting permission to sail.

The American government has no intention of attempting to stop all neutral trade with Germany, but will put an end to re-shipment of American goods into enemy territory.

Gradually the export control will take the place of the British system of letters of assurance.
