THE BISHOP OF YUKON AND PRINCE RUPERT

The first Bishop of the newly erected Vicariate of Yukon and Prince Rupert, the Rev. Father Bunoz, has long been connected with the Pacific Coast and has been a resident in Prince Rupert since the early days of the city in 1909. Born in 1864, in Savoie, a department of southern France, he first went to school in his native land, and completed his academic and collegiate courses at Rumilly and La Roche. Graduating with distinction at the well known college at La Roche, he decided to prosecute his studies for the priesthood. He entered the Novitiate of the Oblate Order at L'Ossier and went to Rome for philosophy and theology, where he was ordained priest in 1891.

His first mission was British Columbia, where he arrived in the fall of 1891, and began the study of Chinook, to fit himself for his missionary labors among the coast Indians. During a ten years' residence in southern B. C., besides visiting the Kootenay and coast Indians, he was Superior of St. Mary's Mission City, pastor and Superior of St. Peter's Church in New Westminster, and Vice-General of the Arch-Diocese of Vancouver.

In 1898, the missionary district over which Father Bunoz presided, was erected into a separate prefecture, and Rome appointed him its first ecclesiastical Superior, with the title Perfect Apostolic. Scouting "the tide in the affairs of men," he moved to Prince Rupert in 1909 and began the then not very promising work of looking after the spiritual interests of Prince Rupert's Catholic people. How well he succeeded "he who runs may read." "St. Mary's handsome church with its spacious residence, the commodious Catholic Club, St. Joseph's Convent and parochial school, with a twenty-five thousand dollar boarding school under construction, these speak volumes for the untiring zeal of Father Bunoz, and are monuments to the generosity of his little flock, who rejoice in the well merited honor conferred by Rome upon their beloved pastor in making him the first Bishop of the newly-erected Vicariate of Yukon and Prince Rupert.

Interviewed, the women said it was reported that of the 200 of the command who had reached the front only 50 remained. Twenty were killed, eight were taken prisoner and all the remainder were wounded.

"Several times," said one wounded girl, "we attacked the Germans. Especially memorable was our attack at the Novoshas-siky Wood, near Smorgon, where the enemy soldiers, hearing the voices of girls, lost their nerve. The result was that many of them were killed, wounded or taken prisoner. Among the prisoners were a few women, from whom we learned for the first time that German women also were fighting."

"We did not feel the slightest fear for our personal safety. Our passion was to serve the Fatherland. We advanced gaily against the foe with laughter and song, our only unpleasant sensations being when we first came to the corpses. Once, when replying to the enemy's rifle and machine gun fire, we discovered to our amazement that all our men comrades in the neighboring trenches had treacherously fled, leaving us, a handful of women, to face the enemy alone."

TENDERS will be received at the office of the District Engineer, Public Works Department, Prince Rupert, B. C., up to and including August 10th, 1917, for the purchase of the Government owned horse "FARMER."

This horse is slightly lame on its right fore foot, otherwise it is sound, gentle and in good condition, and will make a serviceable farm horse.

The animal can be seen on H. Du Vernet's ranch, Kitwanga, B. C.
