WESTHOLME THEATRE

Love and adventure vie with each other for the principal interest in the play to be shown to-night at the Westholme Theatre. "The Man From Bitter Root" is a great story which weaves into one the lives of three persons. It deals with the mining conditions in the West. William Farnum in the title role is as great as ever in his delineation of the character of the part he has to play. How a relentless fate seems to dog the footsteps of the "Man from Bitter Root" for a long time, and how he emerges from his trials richer and wealthier is vividly portrayed in this film. But the man, and the man-like spirit survives. A gazette and a good comedy will also be shown.
