WESTHOLME THEATRE

A stirring American photoplay entitled "Those Without Sin," is billed for the Westholme Theatre tonight. This is one of the Lasky productions, which are famous. The star is Blanche Sweet, who is already a great favorite on the coast. "Those Without Sin" were they who were requested to "cast the first stone" on a historic occasion, but, not being among those present at that moment, did not. Nor have they done so to this day, through all these hundreds of years. It will be with very particular interest that the audience will view this photoplay this evening, when the people named in the title of the play, may possibly be seen on the screen. This is a very fine play indeed, and one which will hold the interest of the audience from start to finish.

Local News Notes

When you think of shoes, think of Wallace's. 191.

The Colts and the Juniors are going to put on a ball game to-night at the recreation grounds.

Ladies' Bell's white canvas lace shoes, ivory soles and heels, now in stock—Wallace's. 191.

Miss Ryan and Miss Kendall arrived back in the city on Sunday night after a short trip up the line.

Mr. James Thorburn, deputy collector, Department of Inland Revenue, Vancouver, has arrived in Prince Rupert on a visit.

Miss Carrie Akerly, of Vancouver, has arrived in Prince Rupert on a few weeks' holiday and is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Kemp.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Johnson, of Seattle, were among the arrivals in the city by the Princess Alice yesterday and will be visiting here for a few days.

A communication was read at the city council meeting last evening from the Great War Veterans Association thanking the city for the painting and the lumber supplied for the fixing up of their rooms.

A garden tea will be held at the home of Mrs. G. M. Brown, 7th Avenue, East, on Wednesday first in aid of the Seal Cove branch of the Red Cross. All are cordially welcome. 190.

Mr. Frank Van Gorder, school teacher at Gwinoha on the Naas river, is in the city on his way south. It is very likely that the school will not reopen because of the lack of pupils.

At the police court before court before Magistrate Carss, Andrew Kiunka was fined in the sum of $20 for assaulting a man named Chewonsky, who was also fined $10 for being drunk.

Mr. J. Myhill-Jones has just acquired the launch which belonged to Mr. Alex. Prudhomme. She is a bigger and speedier boat than the one he had, and will make a better tow-boat.

The Great War Veterans Association wish to thank all those ladies and gentlemen who contributed cakes, etc., for the entertainment of the sailors at the club rooms, when in port recently.

Mr. Hogg, the inspector of the Bank of Commerce, is in the city, having come up from Vancouver a few days ago. Mr. Hogg will be here about a week before continuing his tour of inspection.

Mr. Bert Kergin and Mr. Fowler, of Alice Arm, arrived in the city on their private launch yesterday. They are the well known transportation men of Alice Arm and will be in Prince Rupert for a few days.

Mr. T. W. Falconci, the hardware man of Alice Arm, was among the arrivals in the city yesterday. Mr. Falconci formerly had his business in Stewart, but of late has been engaged at the great smelter town.

Mr. H. B. Doven, the G. T. P. agent at Winnipeg, is in the city for a few days. During his trip to the coast Mr. Doven is accompanied by Mrs. and Miss Doven and have just returned from a trip north on the Prince George.

The Princess Alice on her trip north yesterday had a great number of tourists on board who were making the return trip to Skagway. The city of Skagway is a very historical place, as it was near this city that the great rush of '98 started. The trail which the gold-seekers took when in pursuance of the ground yet to be staked is quite near the city and this alone is worth going to Skagway to see. The greater part of the trail remains just as it was and here and there may be seen the baggage of those who started out with too big a pack. All the tourists who visit this place carry away souvenirs and it is known that one who was very anxious to have something to remember him of this great country took away with him the grave stone of one with whom many a legend and queer story was connected. The grave stone is now replaced by a wooden head-piece and this is litterally covered with names which have been carved upon its surface.

Men's Invictus shoes—all kinds and sizes—Wallace's. 191.

Mr. W. R. Payne has just returned from a trip to Anyox by the Princess May and is registered at the Prince Rupert Hotel. Mr. Payne, who represents the Granville Stationers, is on a business trip north and will be in the city about a week.

The time for berry-picking is now here and quite a few people have been over at Mellakatia and have returned with lots of berries. The black currants are not yet ready but there are lots of fine raspberries. It is well known that the berries of this northern coast are almost unsurpassable by any berries that have ever been placed on the market.

Information is requested regarding the present whereabouts of Byron Willbur Crowell, late of Smithers, B. C. Last heard of in Kamloops, B. C., he is about 18 years of age, grey eyes, dark brown hair. Any information regarding him will be gladly received by Mrs. R. W. Crowell, Smithers, B. C., or the Daily News office, Prince Rupert. S17

A report from the Board of works committee was read at the city council meeting last evening recommending a report from the city engineer regarding redecking. The city engineer reported that 2-inch planking laid diagonally across the present decking on a stretch of the avenue between conrad and the school would effect a considerable saving, as against redecking the avenue with new 3-inch lumber. The report was adopted on a motion by Ald. McClymont, seconded by Ald. Mr. Rae.
