WESTHOLME THEATRE

Tonight at the Westholme Theatre, a Western drama entitled "The Mediator" will be presented. This is a play full of rapid action and quaint humor, the mediator being the central character. He is a man who loves peace so much that he is ready to fight for it. Incidentally he finds it necessary to do so. George Walsh is the star, and he is ably backed up by Juanita Hansen. Fighting for peace and a peaceful, law-abiding home, the mediator puts in some strenuous times, and the excitement is great. The humor of the play will appeal to everyone.

In addition there will be displayed a comedy, sparkling with fun, a travelogue and a Gazette, showing some of the latest events.

Sir Clifford is back from the West and T. A. Crerar, of Winnipeg, president of the Grain Growers' Grain Company, and J. H. Wood, president of the United Farmers of Alberta, with him. Their acceptance or refusal of portfolios in the Cabinet will be announced as soon as they learn from Sir Robert Borden upon what terms they may enter.

These gentlemen, however, did not stay long, but as soon as they learned from Sir Robert Borden on what terms they would enter the Cabinet, they immediately took their departure.
