Prince Rupert, Sept. 28, 1917.
To the Editor,

Dear Sir:—I should be glad if you would insert the following in your next issue.

It has been brought to my notice that a remark of mine was taken exception to, at the meeting called on Tuesday to consider asking speakers from Vancouver to address a win the war mass meeting in this city.

The remark that I have been accused of making was "That Prince Rupert was doing nothing to win the war." The remark I did make and which I meant was, "That there are a number of men in Prince Rupert who are doing nothing to win the war." I was very particular to mention the word "men," as nobody appreciates and feels prouder of the women of this town who are doing their utmost, than I do.

Now I sincerely believe that the majority of Prince Rupert men would do more to help win the war, than give a few dollars now and again, if they were shown how and that was the reason I spoke in favor of men coming from Vancouver who can perhaps tell us ways and means in which we can further help.

Yours truly,
H. O. CREWE.

WESTHOLME THEATRE

Tonight Pauline Frederick is the star artiste at the Westholme. "Sleeping Fires" is the name of the play and in it Pauline Frederick has a glorious opportunity for the display of that histrionic genius for which she has become internationally renowned. In this play the actress is shown in a role of a self sacrificing and devoted young mother, who is forced to battle for her own rights against a thoroughly selfish and disloyal husband. The conflict and intrigues of the husband, with their tremendous final situations form a type of powerful drama in which Pauline Frederick excels.

There will also be a Ham and Bud comedy which will delight everyone.

Give each of Your Children a War Savings Certificate.

LET them feel that they are Canada's partners—that they have each a definite share in the stern struggle—the certain victory—and the free and glorious future.

Encourage them to save and buy Certificates themselves! You'll be developing their patriotism, their thrift and their business sense—for Canadian War Savings Certificates offer absolute security and excellent interest return. More important still, you will be guaranteeing their future, for every dollar lent to Canada helps win the war.

For each $21.50, $43 or $86 lent now, the Government issues a Certificate, payable in three years, for $25, $50 or $100. This means that interest is added at over 5% per annum. Certificates may be purchased at any Bank or Money Order Post Office.

For the sake of Canada and your children, save and invest in War Savings Certificates.
