GOVERNMENT

In that year of unrest in old Europe, 1848, when dissatisfaction with the existing state of affairs found its expression in rebellion in many countries there, the Vienna mob yelled under the palace windows of a terrified archduke. His Serene Highness asked of Metternich, "In God's name, what is that fearful row?" "That, Sire," was the answer of the cynical Minister, "is what Messieurs the Republicans call the voice of God."

In 1848 the voice of God was finally stifled, after the shedding of much blood. Since that time, the voice of the people in the English-speaking countries has been given more heed to, otherwise something of the same nature might have happened.

Here in Canada, since the beginning of the war, and during the past three years, the vox populi has been raised against the existing Government, for many reasons. Nearly three years later, the tardy proposal for the formation of a union government was made, but the de facto government could not get the men they wanted. Representative Liberals would not join in a government which had permitted the existing state of affairs to culminate as they had done; the more so, as the then Government wanted and asked for another year's extension. The people of Canada hoped to make a change at the coming election. The Borden Government would have to go before the people with their record; and at the hands of the people would receive judgment.

Now that Parliament is dissolved, rumors are rife of the retreat of Sir Wilfrid Laurier. If this takes place, although Sir Wilfrid has made no public statement on the matter, it will create an entirely new situation for Sir Robert Borden. The new leader of the Liberal party will be none the less insistent upon the application of the principle of Conservation to that wider area than the Borden Government saw fit to apply it to. Already two new members have been admitted to Sir Robert's Cabinet in the persons of Messrs. Balfour and Hugh Graham. Both are

Liberals, but be they Liberals or Conservatives, or what they will, "if they are willing to perpetuate such monstrosities as the Canadian Northern or Quebec Railway deals; the exactions of the Food Barons, now clearly exposed by the sworn testimony before a Royal Commission; the unlicensed play of political patronage, the last specimen of which is the substitution of a Government member of Parliament for the non-partisan Dr. Adam Shortt on the Dominion Civil Service Commission, they will not be wanted by the Canadian people."

What Canada wants in the first place is the placing of the country upon a proper war basis, which is what the Borden Government has failed to do after more than three years of war. The very fact of the "win the war" meetings over the country is a severe indictment of the manner in which the Government has mishandled the situation. It is all very well for Tories and the Tory party to come out now to win the war. They have had a three years' opportunity—which they failed to seize.

The conscription of the excess war profits, the increase of the pensions of our soldiers and their dependents and legislation to reduce the over-high cost of living are three things which the Borden Government have consistently played with. The voice of the people has demanded these things in no uncertain terms, but the Borden Government paid no attention. They were more concerned with other things. What Canada demands is a Government that will be representative of the people, and not of a certain class. Canada demands a Government which will be free from the control of the big moneyed interests. A Government which will place the burden of the war where it can best be borne.

SALOONS CLOSE IN NEW YORK

New York, Oct. 5.—Unable to cope with the multiplicity of federal and state taxes and the increased cost of all intoxicants, one thousand saloons and retail stores in Greater New York have

"One Whole Wheat Meal a Day"—that's the slogan for those who want to conserve food and also conserve strength and health. But be sure it is the whole wheat prepared in a digestible form. Shredded Wheat Biscuit is 100 per cent. whole wheat—nothing wasted, nothing thrown away. Fifteen years ago Shredded Wheat was eaten only as a breakfast cereal; now it is eaten for any meal as a substitute for meat, eggs, or potatoes. Two or three biscuits with milk or cream and some fresh fruits make a nourishing, satisfying meal at a cost of only a few cents.

Made in Canada.

closed their doors, according to estimates made today by excise officials. Yesterday when the license fee of $1,500 which must be paid in advance, became due hundreds of places failed to open their doors.

In smaller cities the operation of the new state law, providing that after Sept. 30th there could only be one saloon to every 500 inhabitants in political subdivisions having less than 55,000 population will result in the closing of about 1,500 saloons in the state this month, according to Wm. McClenahan, president of the Retail Liquor Dealers' Association. If the present situation continues, Mr. McClenahan said, three thousand saloons in the state will have to close their doors in the next six months.
