In a letter, recently received by Mr. Jack Venables from his brother Ray, who was one of the number chosen in the September draft in the States, he says that the selective draft system is working out very successfully. In the camp where he is stationed there are 50,000 men in training and more are arriving daily. He states that everyone is entering into the work with great enthusiasm.

A farewell party took place on Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Monroe, when a very pleasant time was had. The vocal and instrumental selections by the hostess and her guests were the entertaining features of the evening, after which a dainty supper was served. Mr. Monroe is leaving on Wednesday for Montreal to join the Inland Water Transport Service, and from there will be sent to one of the theatres of military operations. His many friends will regret his leaving.
