Don't forget to see George Beban, Antoinette and de babee in the Marcellini Millions, the Italian comedy-drama, at the Westholme tonight only.

Mr. E. A. Cleveland, of Vancouver, left for the south yesterday. Mr. Cleveland is a civil engineer and has been examining several of the mines in the district.

Mr. D. C. Stewart and Sid Winsby went out hunting on Sunday. They were overtaken by darkness when on the hills, and had to camp out all night. Sleeping below a tree on a night like Sunday sort of takes the charm of hunting away. The more especially when the bag remains empty.

Mr. W. O. Fulton is a hunter of a different kind. He went out on Sunday also, and after twenty minutes in the bush, he got two bucks. He adopts a different plan from most hunters. He takes a poke of salt with him, and after transfixing the quarry with a legal eye, cum grano salis sprinkles their tails. It works every time, as Billy seldom returns without a deer, when he goes out.

GERMAN AEROPLANES MUST NOT OVERWORK

London, Oct. 22.—A captured order issued by General Ludendorff, the German Quartermaster-General, states the Teutonic allies are employing their aeroplanes economically with a view to great battles in the future. "We should be wrong to overwork and wear out our air formations, which are inferior in number," the order says. "The infantry must be told it is impossible to prevent the enemy flying over our lines. The airmen must be used sparingly and at calm times. Germany must have as many machines as possible for great emergencies."

SALVAGE CLAIM AGAINST RAVALLI

Seattle, Oct. 20.—The Independent Steamship Company yesterday filed a suit in Admiralty against the Pacific Steamship Company, claiming as salvage ten per cent. of the value of the steamer Ravalli. The Ravalli, on October 4, while bound from Alaska to Seattle, became disabled and was towed to Prince Rupert by the Independent Steamship's vessel.

FROM THE B. C. GAZETTE

Provincial appointments as announced in the last issue of the B. C. Gazette are, among others: W. E. ## WESTHOLME THEATRE

If you did not see "The Marcellini Millions" at the Westholme last night, don't miss the opportunity offered this evening. George Beban in the role of the poor Italian truck grower who comes into vast wealth is a treat. He has always made a great hit in Italian parts, and in this play he keeps up his reputation. The play is described as a comedy-drama, and it is comedy all right. It is well worth seeing.

Give each of Your Children a War Savings Certificate.

LET them feel that they are Canada's partners—that they have each a definite share in the stern struggle—the certain victory—and the free and glorious future.

Encourage them to save and buy Certificates themselves! You'll be developing their patriotism, their thrift and their business sense—for Canadian War Savings Certificates offer absolute security and excellent interest return. More important still, you will be guaranteeing their future, for every dollar lent to Canada helps win the war.

For each $21.50, $43 or $86 lent now, the Government issues a Certificate, payable in three years, for $25, $50 or $100. This means that interest is added at over 5% per annum. Certificates may be purchased at any Bank or Money Order Post Office.

For the sake of Canada and your children, save and invest in War Savings Certificates.

The National Service Board of Canada, OTTAWA.
