A FAR, FAR BETTER THING

Now that the date of the election is fixed for December 17, the electorate have just six weeks in which to consider the political situation, before recording their opinions at the polls. Six years ago, a section of this community stood in the streets with bared heads and reverently (?) sang "God Save the King." The reason for this repetition of the words the prophet Samuel instructed the people of Israel to cry at the coronation of King Saul was on this occasion, because Sir Robert Borden had been returned to power at Ottawa with a parliamentary majority, and the wicked Grits, who wanted to "trade with the Yankees" had been ousted. Canada, which with the introduction of reciprocity, was alleged to be in danger of being annexed presumably by the United States, and lost to the Empire, by the return of the Conservative party was saved.

On that occasion six years ago, the issues of the day were so misrepresented to the electorate, that these issues were brought down to a matter of which flag shall fly in Canada. Vote for a Liberal and reciprocity and the Stars and Stripes, or vote for a Conservative and a high tariff and the Union Jack. That was what was finally put up to the people.

On the present occasion, the Conservative party has raised such a howl throughout the country by their mismanagement of the national affairs that as plain Conservatives they have their fears of winning the election again. In fact they know it to be impossible, as plain Conservatives. Hence the "win the war" cry. The Conservative party is that party which is out to win the war! A statement of this kind is one which leaves the inference that there are Canadians who do not want to win the war. Which is absurd. Arrogating to itself and denying it to others, the virtue of wishing to win the war is quite in keeping with the statement of that Ontario Conservative who had the hardihood to state that it was the Conservatives who were doing the most of the fighting, too.

Knowing that the name Conservative was not going to get them anywhere, that has been changed to Borden Unionist. Any other kind of Unionist would not, shall not do. It must be Borden Unionist. This coupled with the fact that the Conservative Association are all Borden Unionists now, and no longer Conservative makes one wonder just what is the difference between a straight Conservative and a Borden Win-the-War Unionist. Apparently there is none. With the Conservative party machine out working for the Borden Unionist the difference is all the harder to distinguish.

It is hoped by these methods to disguise the same old party under a new name, so that the electorate will not recognize the Tory underneath.

The electors were fooled in 1911, but all the people can't be fooled all the time.

ernment with the Borden Government on top so that their graft will not be disturbed. They are in favor of union government or any other old government that will leave them with their feet in the trough. They are willing to yell win-the-war or anything else that will divert the public mind from their profiteering transactions. Their idea is that if they talk rapidly about patriotism the people will not notice them getting away with the money. Sir Joseph Flavelle had the same idea when he said "to hell with profits" and watered the Ottawa Canadian Club with his tears.

Sir Joseph, by the way, treats the Borden Government or any union government that the Borden Government may form with fine disdain. The appointment of a Food Controller has no effect on him, save to cause him to raise the price of bacon again. Bacon in Sir Joseph's home town of Toronto is now fifty-six cents a

When the Germans Occupied Paris in 1871

WHEN the Germans occupied Paris in 1871 they demanded—and collected—an indemnity of one thousand million dollars. Hundreds of thousands of French peasants and industrial workers trudged their way into Paris and, with the citizens of Paris, offered their savings to the Government of France, so that their beloved country might be freed from the presence of the Hun.

Suppose, for example, that two or three Huns were quartered upon you—right in your home.

Try then to imagine what you would do, give, pay, or lend to free Canada from the Hun.

Recall the things that have happened in Belgium and France and conceive if you can what you would pay in money to prevent them happening in Canada.

Well, then, you who stay at home—women as well as men—are asked to lend your money to Canada NOW to prevent just that, and other things.

And so surely as the Allies' Soldiers in the Front line trenches are fighting for Freedom, so in a lesser degree do they fight who lend their money to support Canada's armies in the field.

Money fights to-day, and it is the bounden duty of every Canadian to back Canada's part in the war by investing his or her savings in Canada's Victory Bonds.

SIR WILFRID LAURIER MAY RUN IN TORONTO

Ottawa, Nov. 2.—The capital may see a political battle royal with the two leaders as candidates—Sir Robert Borden and Sir Wilfrid Laurier. There is trouble in the Win-the-War ranks in Ottawa over the nomination of A. E. Frapp and Dr. Chabot, the members of the last House. It is claimed they were nominated and no attempt was made to invite Win-the-War Liberals. As a result there is an agitation on foot for Sir Robert to run as the English-speaking candidate for Ottawa as well as in a Nova Scotia seat. It is said now that if this is done by the Unionists the Laurier men will nominate Sir Wilfrid. So far no Liberal convention has been called. In 1908, when there was trouble in the Liberal ranks in Ottawa, Sir Wilfrid was the candidate.

An Army of Internal Bathers

Over half a million bright, keen up-to-date Canadians and Americans have found that Internal Bathing is more essential to their well-being than External Baths. Have found that, taken occasionally at night, they feel like different people the next morning. No more of that bilious, tired, nervous condition—but, having by Nature's own cleanser, antiseptic warm water, removed all the poisonous waste from the Lower Intestines, they awake thoroughly refreshed by normal sleep, with all their functions acting in healthy accord, bright, happy, clear-headed and confident, eager and capable for the duties of the day.

"Yours very truly,
