

SEVEN YEARS TORTURE

Nothing Helped Him Until He Took "FRUIT-A-TIVES"

ALBERT VARNER
 Buckingham, Que., May 3rd, 1915.
 For seven years, I suffered terribly from Severe Headaches and Indigestion. I had belching gas from the stomach, bitter stuff would come up into my mouth after eating, while at times I had nausea and vomiting, and had chronic constipation. I went to several doctors and wrote to a specialist in Boston but without benefit. I tried many remedies but nothing did me good. Finally, a friend advised "Fruit-a-tives". I took this grand fruit medicine and it made me well. I am grateful to "Fruit-a-tives", and to everyone who has miserable health with Constipation and Indigestion and Bad Stomach, I say take "Fruit-a-tives", and you will get well.

pound, and the Food Controller says he can do nothing about it. The Food Controller is quite right. He can't do anything about it because Sir Joseph owns the Borden Government, and how can a Food Controller be more independent than the Government that appointed him? The answer is that he can't, for the simple reason that the part cannot be greater than the whole. Food Controller Hanna doesn't have to go to Euclid to feel that that is his unfortunate position.

Sir Joseph snaps his fingers at the Borden Government in other ways. For instance he refuses to resign his job as chairman of the Imperial Munitions Board, to which he was appointed on the recommendation of his friend and protégé, Sir Thomas White, backed by the O. K. of the Borden Government. On the Borden Government's recommendation, Sir Joseph could be removed just as expeditiously as he was appointed, but so far the Borden Government has failed to make the recommendation. The reason it has failed is because Sir Joseph won't let it until he is good and ready. Sir Joseph may resign, but it will be in his own good time and in his own way. He may resign before a general election—which will be too late to save the Government's bacon—but his resigning won't do the people of Canada much good. It won't give Canada back the money he has leeched during the last three years. The man is bloated with it. It shows red through his face. The five hundred thousand women who are given the vote—most of them poor women—may well ask why Sir Joseph, the Borden Government's friend, looks so ruddy. He appears to be full of blood. He is—your blood, my blood, our blood, the blood of the soldiers at the front, whose hard-earned dollar he has made worth forty cents by his infamous manipulation of prices. The women folk of five hundred thousand soldiers, who have handed every dollar of separation allowance and patriotic fund over to Sir Joseph and his tribe for the necessities of life, are free to wonder if the vote the Borden Government gives them is any compensation for the way the Borden Government's friends, including Sir Joseph, have fleeced them. They asked for bread and Premier Borden gave them a scorpion—that is to say they asked for cheaper food and he gave them votes. After all a vote is a scorpion—the women can sting with it. They certainly will not vote for Borden and fifty-six cent bacon.—H. F. Gadsby.

LUX

An exquisite "newness" for all woollens

Somehow, with ordinary washing, one always thinks of woollen garments coming out of the wash a little worse off than when they went in.

Far otherwise when you let LUX wash them. They come out of the wash with a soft, fleecy "new" feeling, as well as being absolutely clean—quite unshrunk, and quite unthickened.

How is it done? Allow 3 tablespoonfuls of LUX for each gallon of water, which should be near the boiling point. Put the woollens in and stir them about with a stick. Then let them soak until the solution is cool enough for you to squeeze the woollens with the hands—when the dirt will run out. Then rinse in 2 or 3 relays of tepid water and hang to dry.

Directions for Employers

Who Purpose Claiming Exemption for Class One Men in Their Employ

THE following course is recommended for employers who have in their employ any number of men—bachelors and widowers without children (not otherwise excepted) who were 20 years old on the 13th October, 1917, and whose 34th birthday did not occur before Jan. 1st, 1917, and who propose claiming exemption for any of these men, to continue in work which is deemed to be in the National interest:

First, it will simplify matters for you and for the exemption tribunals if you instruct Class One men in your employ to go up for medical examination at the nearest Medical Board Centre. Only Class One men, who upon medical examination are placed in Category A are liable for immediate service under the Act. Class One men placed in Categories B, C or E satisfy immediate requirements if they attach their medical report to their claim for exemption.

Employer's Statement and Schedule

Second, prepare a full statement of the total number of your employees grouping them according to their respective occupations and qualifications and stating the number in each group. Indicate the possibility or otherwise of replacing the labour of Class One men with the labour of those unavailable for military service, or outside the statutory class called up; the extent to which the withdrawal of men in the statutory class would affect the business, the reason for considering that the carrying on of the business is in the National interest, and such other facts and circumstances as may appear to be relevant.

Append to this general statement and classification, a schedule of the names, ages and occupations of all men in Class One, indicating as to those who have been medically examined, the medical Category in which they have been placed, noting against each name whether or not you propose to claim exemption on behalf of the man.

Where exemption is claimed employer should state his opinion whether such exemption should be conditional on the man's continuing to follow his present occupation and whether it would suffice if exemption were granted for one, two or more months, as the case may be.

A copy of both statement and schedule should be prepared for each man for whom the employer is applying for exemption.

Forms for Exemption

These forms may be obtained on request from any Post Master, who will transmit the forms when filled in, to the Registrar.

Claims for exemption must be made not later than November 10th.

Issued by The Military Service Council
