As If Walking On Air

ORILLIA, Ont., Nov. 28th. 1914.
"For over two years, I was troubled with Constipation, Drowsiness, Lack of Appetite and Headaches. One day I saw your sign which read 'Fruit-a-lives make you feel like walking on air.' This appealed to me, so I decided to try a box. In a very short time, I began to feel better, and now I feel fine. I have a good appetite, relish everything I eat, and the Headaches are gone entirely. I recommend this pleasant fruit medicine to all my friends."

See Pauline Frederick at the Westholme Theatre tonight in "Her Better Self."

Mr. T. H. Johnson, of the Canadian Fish and Cold Storage Co., left for the south yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. George Frizzell arrived back from the south yesterday afternoon on board the Princess Sophia.

A splendid photoplay at the Westholme Theatre tonight. "Her Better Self." Pauline Frederick is the star.

At Massett, a man named Eric Bruce has been committed for trial upon a charge of sedition. The case will probably come up at the assizes.

The Retail Clerks' Union held their semi-annual monthly meeting last evening and enrolled another new member. This makes a total of eight new members in one month.

Archdeacon Heathcote, of Vancouver, who is at present at Anxox speaking in the interests of the Victory Loan, upon his return here on Thursday evening will speak between the houses in the Westholme Theatre at 9 p. m. Archdeacon Heathcote is a well known orator and will be well worth hearing.

Mr. E. F. Duby, of the Seal Cove sawmill, left for the south yesterday afternoon by the Prince George. Mr. Duby will return by the end of the month. He has gone below to arrange for the last big shipment of the equipment of the sawmill. Half a million feet of lumber is on the way for the completion of the buildings.

There were festivities at the Hospital on Saturday evening, when a dance was given for the nurses. The affair was a very enjoyable one and was greatly appreciated. A feature of the evening was a presentation of a wrist watch to Miss Fraser, of the hospital staff, from the patients. Music was supplied by Mrs. Wells and Mr. J. Lee.

NOTES FROM THE COUNCIL CHAMBER

At the regular meeting of the city council held last evening, a proposal was brought up for the purchase of the cabin belonging to the late Wm. Angle at Shawatlans Lake for the sum of $75. This building would be utilized for the housing of the men employed upon the pipe line.

His worship reported that the city assessor advised him that it is now too late to bring down the assessment for 1918 during the life of the present council.

A petition was received by the council asking for the construction of a plank roadway to connect up McBride Street with the drydock. Access to the drydock at present is and has been for the last several years, a matter of some difficulty, so far as a regular footpath is concerned.

A letter was received from Mr. William Sibbald pointing out the dangerous condition of some of the city streets and also claiming damages for injuries received owing to the absence of proper street lighting. The matter was referred to the city solicitor.

"HER BETTER SELF"

This is the title of the photoplay which will be screened at the Westholme Theatre tonight. Pauline Frederick is the star artist. She is a great favorite. Her role in this play is that of a young and spoiled daughter of a wealthy family, who falls in love with a poor young doctor. How the better self of the girl finally triumphs over her disinclination to leave her wealthy home for the struggling position of her lover is the theme of the play. The role is a difficult one, but it is ably carried out by Pauline Frederick. There will also be a very interesting Topical Budget and a splendid comedy.

Its loose construction permits any British subject who has been six months in the province and thirty days in the riding being placed on the list. This can be done up to polling day. Here's a Way to Use
Apples

A woman in Vancouver proved to us that scientists were not practical in the ways they recommend the use of PACIFIC MILK.

She says (and she did not say it boastfully) that she gets almost half as much again from Pacific Milk as she can even from fresh milk. She cites this as an example. Try it.

½ cup PACIFIC MILK.

3 cups of water—when nearly boiling mix in 3 tablespoonsful of cornstarch and two table-spoonsful of sugar. Cook for five minutes, stirring all the time, then beat in two cups of apple sauce, and put into moulds to set.

Using half cup PACIFIC MILK makes this quite rich enough, although she says Pacific is the only milk that stands so much reduction.
