RETURNED SOLDIERS WON'T HEAR BORDEN

The British Columbia Federationist in a recent issue prints the following dispatch.
Halifax, N. S., Nov. 29.—When Premier Borden attempted to address the several thousand returned soldiers who returned on the Olympic he received the biggest surprise of his life. Scarcely had he started to speak when a soldier shouted "To Hell with Borden."
This was the signal of a wild demonstration against the premier and the men who were not safely-first colonels, but real fighting men, absolutely refused to give Flavelle's protector a hearing.

Commenting upon this it says: Citizens of British Columbia did you see the above in the "Sun" or the "World" or the "Province"? Of course you didn't. The three Vancouver dailies can be relied upon not to print anything detrimental to the government.

But, and there is a big meaning to this but, they reported to the full and even featured on the editorial pages the fact that Borden was howled down in Kitchener, Ontario. They called the men who interrupted Flavelle's pet in Kitchener, traitors. Dare they use the same language about the grim men of war who howled down the premier over the blue waters of Halifax harbor.

Borden has muzzled the press and killed free speech in Canada. We will guarantee that he will be given a good hearing even in Kitchener if he opens his remarks with these words: "People of Canada, if you will grant me free speech tonight I will grant you free speech hereafter."

Borden got in Kitchener and on the Olympic a dose out of the bottle which for three years he has forced down the throats of liberty-loving Canadians.

POINTS OF INTEREST FOR INTENDING VOTERS

There are many points about the Dominion elections act as affected by the war time elections act and the new provisions which will be applicable to the voting in the coming elections.

The following are some points which will be of interest to the voters in the coming federal election:—

Where provincial requirements as to residence cannot be applied at the time of making the lists the residential qualifications of voters is one year in the province and thirty days in the electoral district prior to the issuance of the writ of election.

Wives, widows, mothers, sisters and daughters of persons, male or female, alive or dead, who are serving or who have served outside of Canada in any of the military forces of Canada or Great Britain or within or without Canada in any of the naval forces, excepting such female relatives of persons who have ceased service in otherwise than an honorable manner are entitled to vote. No such relatives of persons who have joined the naval forces of Canada since the passing of the war time election act on September 20, 1917, will have the vote.

Lists to be Posted.

Fifteen days before the polling day (Dec. 17) lists of the voters in each polling subdivision will be posted in said subdivision. The enumerators then sit two hours per day for ten days preceding polling day to revise the list, answer inquiries and execute transfers of votes of election officers and agents whose duties may take them away from the polling subdivision on election day. Up to five days before election the enumerator may upon the representation of any credible person add or strike off the lists any name.

There are no printed lists. On election day electors whose names are not on the lists may appear before the enumerator who sits within or near the polling place. If they are entitled to vote they are given certificates. Any person who is refused a certificate may demand and obtain a written refusal which entitles him to a ballot which is sealed in a nvelope and not counted excepting in case of a recount and then only upon proof of his right to vote. Votes of persons challenged are treated in the same manner.

There is an enumerator in each polling subdivision. Entirely new lists are being made out in Prince Rupert. The lists when completed will be posted outside the polling booths or outside the postoffice.

May be Sworn.

Every person, whose name is on the list, can be sworn by candidate, agent, or elector, and if the oath is refused the voter loses the right to cast a vote in the election. The oath is:

"You swear that you are legally qualified to vote at this election, that you are of the (male or female) sex, a British subject, resident of Canada, and of the full age of 21 years. (In case of a female voter the following is added): You do further swear that you are the (wife, widow, mother, sister or daughter as the case may be) of a person who is serving or has served without Canada in the military forces (or within or without Canada in the naval forces) of Canada or of Great Britain in the present war."

The following people are unqualified to vote:

The judges of every court whose appointment rests with the governor-in-council;

Persons disenfranchised for corrupt practices under the act; Criminals, lunatics, inmates of poor houses and such institutions;

Any person who has applied for exemption from military service on conscientious grounds and who has not been refused;

Every person who has been convicted of an offense against the military service act has no vote.
