FOR THE PARTY

Sir Robert Borden has re-pudiated the suggestion that he acquired the idea of putting conscription of men into force in Canada, from his visit to Great Britain in the early part of this year. Until he went there, however, he repeatedly stated that conscription would never come in Canada. He was not back, however, for four days before he went back upon his former declarations. Sir Robert's idea of Imperialism must have been deepened by his coming in contact with the Old Country Tories. He must have got slightly out of touch with the spirit of Canada during his four months' sojourn in Europe. Impressionable natures change quickly, and the close association during these four months with Bob Rogers apparently had borne fruit.

As minister of elections, Bob Rogers is second only to Sir Clifford Sifton, and they found in the conscription cry an election issue of the finest kind—for them. Posing as a Union government, achieved by the co-operation of six Liberals, they hoped to split the opposition and return to power for another five years, maybe. The big interests, who have controlled the Borden government during the last parliament, expect to have another spell of the same plundering of the people as has gone on during that time.

And if the people stand for it, that's what they will get.

FOR THE EMPIRE

In his tour of the West, Sir Wilfrid Laurier has been welcomed by the people en masse. In his speech at Regina, he emphasized that he will never desert the cause of Canada, or of the Empire. His record for the last forty years has been unblemished as a "statesman of the Empire." He was accused during the last election from one end of Quebec to the other by the emissaries of the Tories of being "too British." Now the same people cause him to be called from one end of the Dominion to the other as being too French. His support in Quebec at the last election was divided by the fear which was fostered in the minds of the French-Canadians that he would introduce conscription because of his naval policy, which was "too British." The greatest statesman in Canada is today too British to desert the cause of Canada and of the Empire. And he has the people with him.

TOO TALL!

The overstated and exaggerated claims which are being put forward by the alleged Unionist party to the effect that Canada will quit her share in the struggle of the Empire, unless votes are cast for the Union candidates, can only be regarded as insults to the intelligence of the voters. Statements of this kind are false, and these false statements are made knowingly. The belief that all is fair in love and elections dies hard. Each succeeding generation gets a little bit wiser than the preceding one, and arguments that would get by at an election say fifty years ago are scrutinized just a little bit closer these days. The very extremity of the statements made about Laurier and the Liberals tend to defeat their own ends. Laurier has declared for putting Canada upon a proper war basis, wherein all shall help in bearing the burden of the war in proportion as they can.

His policy is constructive and far-reaching. By having the industries of Canada co-ordinated under Government control for the production of war supplies and for the supply of food for the people at home and the allies overseas, the elimination of profiteering, and Canada united, the Dominion will be in a far better position to do her full share in the winning of the war than under Borden and his henchmen. A vote for Stork and Laurier is a vote for a resumption of the prosperity of Canada and for a united and contented people, pulling together towards one end, and with one aim, to win the war at the earliest possible moment.

"One Meatless Meal a Day" is a good food slogan for war time, or any time—better make it two meatless meals a day—it would mean health and strength for the nation. But be sure and get the right substitute for meat in a digestible form. Shredded Wheat Biscuit is the ideal substitute for meat. It is 100 per cent. whole wheat prepared in a digestible form. Two or three of these little loaves of baked whole wheat make a nourishing, satisfying meal at a cost of only a few cents. Delicious with milk or cream or fruits of any kind.

Made in Canada.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

If in doubt, vote for Stork!

For freedom and democracy, vote for Stork!

For real food control, no profiteering, and putting Canada upon a proper war basis, vote for Stork.

If you want the people in Canada to rule, in preference to the big interests, the one course is to vote for Stork!

At the behest of the big interests, Borden told Sam Hughes to "let up on recruiting" so as not to take their workmen. And now Borden says that voluntary recruiting has been a failure.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier has still enough faith in the people of Canada that he says he can make "voluntary recruiting a decided success." He also says that he will not repeal the Military Service Act. That is now law, which Borden has not yet enforced.

The votes of five hundred thousand women, mostly poor women, the wives, daughters, mothers, and sisters of the soldiers, will not save a government, even with a changed name, that is hand in glove with Sir Joseph Flavelle, the man who takes every dollar they can scrape together for food to put into the mouths of their little children. The man is at the front earning his dollar ten a day, with blood and toil. The women at home find that dollar worth only fifty cents, largely through the efforts of the Borden government and its profiteering friends. Yet the alleged Unionists say that food prices is not an issue in this election.

Baron Rhondaga can fine a man $27,500 for charging too much for potatoes, but Food Controller Hanna doesn't pull any of that rough stuff in Canada. It isn't done here. It's bad form. Mr. Hanna's idea of food control is really self control. From time to time he issues a manifesto full of kind words. He tells the people to draw their belts tighter and face starvation cheerfully. And then when his office is criticised, he says it is the "organized efforts of German agents." He's some controller.

BE CLEAN
INTERNALLY

Over 500,000 People Are Now Doing So.

For many years physicians have agreed that 95 per cent. of human ill is caused by accumulated waste in the lower intestine; that in our present way of living Nature could not remove all this waste without assistance, no matter how regular we might be; and that the poisons from this waste circulated through the blood pulled us away down below par and were responsible for many diseases of a serious nature.

During this time the "J. B. L. Cascade" for Internal Bathing has, because of their recommendation and those of its users, been steadily growing in favor.

Recently, however, the startling news, which has been covering the country that great surgeons and specialists have been operating on the Lower Intestine in such serious diseases as Tuberculosis, and attribute such conditions of chronic ill-health as Nervous Debility and Rheumatism to this cause, also saying that these poisons are favorable to the development of Cancer and Tuberculosis (as stated in a recent article in The New York Times), has caused people to become thoroughly awake to the importance of keeping this Lower Intestine free from all poisonous waste matter, and over 500,000 are now using Internal Baths.

This enthusiastic and grateful letter is by no means an exceptional one amongst the hundreds on our file:

704 7th Ave. South, Lethbridge, Alberta.

Dr. Tyrrell, Toronto:

"Dear Doctor Tyrrell,—After using your 'J. B. L. Cascade' for four months, I feel it my duty as a thankful patient to express my enthusiasm for the great benefit it has been to me. You cannot see my emotions as I write this letter in proof of my faith in your great work. Words fail me to express my thanks for the first learning of your Cascade. Previous to using it I could not go a day without a drug of some sort, and since using it I have not, on my word of honor, swallowed five cents' worth of drugs. I spent over $300.00 in the two years previous to hearing of the 'J. B. L.' Would that all the young men and women I see in this town with their faces covered with horrid, ugly pimples would use it. They would soon get rid of them, as I did. I must stop, or I will be keeping you from your work, but I could fill ten more pages of my past condition of health, also in praise of the 'J. B. L.' May you enjoy this life to the full.

Sincerely yours,

William Dewey.

If you try the "J. B. L. Cascade" you will find yourself always bright, content and capable—the poisonous waste makes us bilious, blue, dull and nervous. Internal Baths are Nature's own cure for Constipation—just warm water properly applied. Drugs force Nature—the "J. B. L. Cascade" gently assists her.

Call and see it at Cyril H. Orme's Drug Store, Cor. 3rd Avenue and 6th St., Prince Rupert.

Ask for "Why Man of Today is Only 50 Per Cent. Efficient," a booklet of great interest, which is given on request. If you prefer, write at once to Chas. A. Tyrrell, M.D., 163 College Street, Toronto, for this book.
