THE ROSS RIFLE

My brother and your brother stand side by side
In the front line trench where so many have died, Awaiting the order to fire—and it comes,
Your brother and my brother look to their guns,
Or rifles, I should say, Ross rifles they are,
And the boys look alarmed, for the things seem to jar;
While over the top of the enemy trench
The Hun hordes are pouring—an other good wrench
But the rifles still jamb. One more upward glance Shows the huns close upon them in rapid advance.
"Good God!" cries my brother,
"Lord! what can we do!"
No need to answer, no more effort

FOOD OR MEN

The Hon. C. C. Ballantyne, Minister of Marine and Fisheries in the Borden Government, speaking required,
The Huns are upon them because no-one fired!
And thousands and thousands of our boys fell that way.
With never a showup and never a say.
While the men who approved of the rifles they held
Stayed home here in comfort while the bank balance swelled.
Now tell me good people, what shall be done
To these infamous traitors, who are worse than the Hun?

The Daily News delivered by carrier, 50 cents per month.

in Montreal on November 16th, stated:

"There is plenty of food in England and France for the soldiers, what they want is men and more men."

Mr. Ballantyne may be sincere, but we prefer accepting the word of such men as Lord Northcliffe, the agent of the British government in the United States, and of Lord Rhonnda, the British Food Controller.

Speaking in Toronto recently, Lord Northcliffe said:

"The question of food supply of the army was, with the solitary exception of transatlantic shipping, the vital question of the war."

Lord Rhonnda, the British Food Controller recently said:

"What we ask from the United States and Canada we cannot procure elsewhere. Unless the Allies in Europe are able to import the supplies necessary for feeding their armies and their civil population, victory may slip from our united grasp."

MINERAL ACTNOTICE TO DELINQUENT PARTNER

To C. W. Calhoun:

The Issue in this Election!

Shall Canada continue to Fight,
or shall she slink from the field?

This Election is the most awful crisis in our history:—

Are we going to retain the honor of Canada, or are we to be known to the world as a nation of quitters?

Are we going to retain our place in the world's markets, or are we to lose both foreign credit and trade?

Are we going to place ourselves under the domination of the French Canadians, who, by spurning their duty in this war, made Conscription necessary?

Patriotic Canadians Carry On!

On December 17th these questions will be answered by the voters of Canada at home and overseas. The brave men and women in France who have sacrificed home comfort and loved ones for our liberty, the men and women at home who believe in Canada, believe in the cause and in the maintenance of Canada's honor, will cast their votes to

Support Union Government

The representative men of the two great political parties came together in Union Government to make Canada's effort in the war most effective in the support of our men at the front with additional forces, and to direct and control the industrial and economic life of Canada to the one end of winning the war. An additional 100,000 reinforcements are urgently needed. Union Government will continue to raise the force quickly and impartially under the provisions of the Military Service Act, 1917. Laurier, Bourassa and Quebec think we have done enough, and are in favor of deserting our men, breaking our pledge, ruining the country's credit with our Allies, and trailing Canada's honor in the mud of world opinion. Quebec, having failed to do her duty, is now trying to bend the rest of Canada to her will.

Wives, Mothers, Daughters and Sisters—You Have a Vote

Every women may vote who is a British subject, 21 years of age, resident in Canada one year, and in the constituency 30 days, who is the mother, wife, widow, daughter, sister or half-sister of any person, male or female, living or dead, who is serving, or has served without Canada in any of the Military forces, or within or without Canada in any of the Naval forces of Canada or of Great Britain in the present war, or who has been honorably discharged from such services, and the date of whose enlistment was prior to Sept. 20, 1917.
