THE DAILY NEWS"SPOKANE" HAD ROUGH VOYAGE TO SEATTLE

Victoria, Dec. 21.—The passage of the crippled steamer from McLaughlin Bay to Seattle was not without its danger owing to the heavy storms experienced during the period of transit. As announced in a telegraphic dispatch yesterday, the Spokane, conveyed by the salvage steamer Salvor, reached Seattle nearly a month after driving ashore on Idol Point. The damage to the Spokane had been well patched up by the crew of the Salvor, but she was in no condition to buck against heavy seas, and on more than one occasion the disabled ship was forced to seek shelter in a cove to await the abatement of the storm.

After delivering the Spokane over to her owners at Seattle, the Salvor remained to take off her powerful pumps and salvage gear put aboard the damaged vessel during the operations in the north. When this work is completed she will return here and tie up at her register berth in the Inner Harbor.

Anyone Can Have Whipped Cream

PACIFIC MILK is so rich in cream that it whips as easily as most of the fresh cream sold around the Province.

Mrs. McCarty of New Westminster wrote in to say that she whips PACIFIC MILK regularly for breakfast.

All she does is to set aside the amount she wants, in a cool place, for a time and then beats it with a sieve egg-beater. She puts this on toast and gives it to the children for breakfast.

You'll find it is good on cakes and puddings.
